Through story segments and studio panel discussions, viewers will learn about: the early identification and newborn screening process; prevention tips to protect children and teens from noise-induced hearing loss; and options to consider for education and parental support. Through personal stories from experts and from parents who have been through this with their children, viewers will hear one prevalent theme in the program - while there is a broad spectrum of support, expertise, and opinions regarding the best course of action, the parents are best qualified to make the best decisions concerning their child's future.

Music performance of an original work to celebrate the timeless and inspirational story of Chief Standing Bear. In the landmark Omaha trial of 1879, the famous Ponca Chief issued a stirring plea on behalf of the nation's first residents. With his impassioned "I Am a Man" speech, Chief Standing Bear was instrumental in securing the basic right of personhood for all American Indians and igniting a movement towards greater understanding and compassion.

Much of what the world knows about the Age of Mammals is found beneath America's vast Great Plains. In Nebraska, layers of sand, gravel, silt and volcanic ash preserve an epic 40-million-year prehistoric record. In NET's new documentary Paleo Sleuths, paleontologists unearth fossils showing how America's wildlife evolved as climate transformed the landscape from hot, wet forests to Ice Age grasslands. Join a fossil safari to a prehistoric world when mammals ruled supreme.

Many senior and vulnerable Nebraskans are faced with the challenges of protecting themselves and their loved ones from the threat of fraud, abuse and financial exploitation. To provide protection for vulnerable and older adults, the Older Americans Act and the Adult Protective Services state statutes were established. In this program, you'll hear from experts who will discuss the impact of financial exploitation on vulnerable and older Nebraskans. Common frauds and scams in Nebraska will be discussed with tips on how to protect yourself from being victimized. You'll learn how to stop unwanted mail and how to place a security freeze on your credit history for a minimal cost. You'll also learn that filing a consumer complaint and reporting scams is easy.
