2ND QUARTER 2022
SUBMITTED
DATE AIRED	NAME OF PROGRAM	BROADCAST TIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Issue #1: Bird Flu arrived in Colorado. Part of the repercussions included the cancelation of poultry competition events such as at the Western Stockshow and advisories to the public about precautions to take with their pets and livestock. KUNC informed the listeners about these changes through our broadcast, which was particularly helpful to those across the Eastern plains and in Weld county - all areas with large agriculture industries.
4/29/2022	All Things Considered / Morning Edition	7:45AM / 4:44PM	5 Minute	A Colorado man culling poultry with suspected bird flu tested positive for the disease. Health officials detected H5N1 influenza – known as avian flu – in the nose of a 40-year-old man who was culling the chickens in Montrose County as part of a prison pre-release work program.
4/29/2022 & 04/30/2022	All Things Considered / Morning Edition	4PM, 6PM & 7AM, 9AM	45 Seconds	A Colorado man culling poultry with suspected bird flu has tested positive for the disease. It's the first-known human case in the US, but the risk to the public is low.
5/6/2022	All Things Considered / Morning Edition	3:30PM, 4:30PM & 6:30AM, 7:30AM	45 Seconds	Governor Jared Polis declared a state of emergency in response to an outbreak of a highly pathogenic - or fast-spreading - avian flu.
Issue #2: The COVID-19 Pandemic. KUNC continued to update the listener with daily and weekly updates to the COVID-19 pandemic. Overall, different counties responded differently to the data. KUNC informed the listener when cases rose and then declined. KUNC air factual information comign from Colorado's top health officials.
5/19/2022	All Things Considered / Morning Edition	4PM, 6PM & 7AM, 9AM	45 Seconds	Colorado experienced another uptick in coronavirus cases. Colorado's top disease expert said COVID hospitalizations could reach as many as eight hundred by mid June. This never came to fruition.
5/25/2022	All Things Considered / Morning Edition	3:30PM, 4:30PM & 6:30AM, 7:30AM	45 Seconds	Many of the communities along the Front Range raised their COVID community threat levels from low to medium. Denver, Larimer, Douglas and Jefferson are among the counties that moved from low to medium on the most recent Centers for Disease Control and Prevention dashboard.
4/4/2022	All Things Considered / Morning Edition	4PM, 6PM & 7AM, 9AM	30 Seconds	Colorado's COVID-19 hospitalizations reached a pandemic low. According to data from the state department of health and environment, just 84 people were hospitalized this past week. It's the lowest since the first week of tracking these numbers began in March 2020.
6/10/2022	All Things Considered / Morning Edition	3:30PM, 4:30PM & 6:30AM, 7:30AM	45 Seconds	COVID 19 cases are on the rise statewide and transmission risk is now high in 13 counties, including Larimer, Weld and Boulder. That's according to the latest data from the Centers For Disease Control and Prevention.
Issue #3: Marshal Fire Recovery. As time passes since the Marshal Fire burned more than 1000 homes in Boulder County. KUNC looked at what the community is doing to rebuild and recover. One aspect was the voices of the people who have lost objects and family heirlooms to the fire.
5/27/2022	All Things Considered / Morning Edition	3:30PM, 4:30PM & 6:30AM, 7:30AM	45 Seconds	Victims of the Marshall fire who plan to rebuild in Superior will not have to install indoor sprinkler systems. Exempting residents from the building code that requires the systems is expected to save between twenty and thirty thousand dollars in rebuilding costs.
6/23/2022	All Things Considered / Morning Edition	7:45AM / 4:44PM	5 Minutes	Six months after the Marshall Fire destroyed more than 1,000 homes in Boulder County, nine rebuilding permits have been issued. But a wide variety of challenges for residents — from underinsurance to local building codes — have meant most fire survivors are nowhere near ready to move back in.
06/20/2022, 06/27/2022	All Things Considered / Morning Edition	7:45AM / 4:44PM BOTH DAYS	5 Minutes	When the Marshall Fire ripped through Boulder County at the end of last year, many fire victims took almost nothing with them that day but did return to sift through the debris in the months that followed. From The Ashes, a KUNC series.
Issue #4: Colorado Legislative Session and Election Security. As the Colorado legislative session wraps up, KUNC informed listeners in Weld, Boulder, and Larimer counties about the bills that passed and failed. We also focus coverage on safety for election workers.
