| KUNC, 91.5 – Greeley / Fort Collins, KRNC, 88.5 Steamboat Springs,KENC, 90.7 Estes Park, KVNC, 90.9 Minturn / Vail, KMPB, 90.7Brackenridge |  | PROGRAMS ISSUES LIST           |  |   |
|--|--|--------------------------------|--|---|
| Breckenridge1ST QUARTER 2022   |  |                                |  |   |
|  | BMITTEDNAME OF PROGRAM                 | BROADCAST TIME                 | DURATION   |   |
| DATE AIREDIssue #1: In December  |  |                                |  | DESCRIPTIONifre ripped through the community and destroyed more than 1,000 homes. It wa   |
|  |  |                                |  | nen KUNC continues to report on the recovery and rebuilding efforts. Homeownesidents. The rebuilding efforts KUNC continus to report on are also going to be a                            |
| are rebuilding with a  | new locus on me resistant in               |                                | ers across the KUNC li                           |   |
|  |  |                                |  | Clean your gutters, rake up your leaves: some household chores can alsoprotect against fire. While some fire-impacted communities in Northern   |
|  | ALL THINGS CONSIDERED                      | 7:51 AM / 9:51AM /             |  | Colorado rebuild their homes, other residents are thinking about how they   |
| 10/5/2022  | / Morning Edition                          | 4:50PM                         | 7 minutes  | make their existing homes more fire resistant.  |
|  |  |                                |  | Iron fences, gravel landscaping and hi-tech vents: Marshall Fire survivorsrebuild safer homes. Homeowners in Boulder County are finally starting to                                       |
| 10/4/2022  | All Things Considered /                    | 7:51 AM / 9:51AM /             | 7 Minutos  | rebuild, nine months after the Marshall Fire devastated the area. Manyresidents are constructing their new homes using fire-resistant technique:  |
| 10/4/2022  | Morning Edition                            | 4:50PM                         | 7 Minutes  | After the Marshall Fire, Boulder County makes changes to help people get of   |
|  | All Things Considered /                    | 6:45 AM / 8:45 AM / 4:44       |  | faster in an emergency. While more than 37,000 people escaped the MarshFire last year, the chaos that ensued prompted an overhaul of how these  |
| 10/3/2022  | Morning Edition                            | PM                             | 5 Minutes  | communities evacuate.   |
| 09/31/2022   | All Things Considered /Morning Edition | 6:45 AM / 8:45 AM / 4:44PM | 5 Minutes  | After counties lift fire restrictions, fall forecast is warmer and drier than usacross the state. Fall will likely be hotter and dried than usual, according tonew long-term outlook. |
|  |  | e West KUNC has a dedicate     | d reporting beat that                            | focuses specifically on water issues. As water levels contine to drop in Lake's Po  |
| and Mead, questions  |  |                                |  | er. KUNC serves the listeners by airing stories and reporting about the impacts of0-million people in the southwest.  |
|  |  |                                |  | Federal officials set their sights on Lower Colorado River evaporation to spe   |
|  |  |                                |  | up conservation. Federal officials say they are ready to have a "candidconversation" about accounting for water lost to evaporation in the Colora   |
|  | All Things Considered /                    | 6:45 AM / 8:45 AM / 4:44       |  | River's Lower Basin. They are giving states until the end of 2024 to prepare  |
| 9/30/2022  | Morning Edition                            | 6:45 AM / 8:45 AM / 4:44PM | 5 Minutes  | what would amount to a significant cut in annual water allocations to userNevada, California and Arizona.   |
|  |  |                                |  | Feds will spend billions to boost drought-stricken Colorado River system. T   |
|  |  |                                |  | U.S. Bureau of Reclamation announced plans to spend money from theInflation Reduction Act on water conservation measures in the Colorado R  |
| 9/23/2022  | All Things Considered /Morning Edition | 6:45 AM / 8:45 AM / 4:44PM | 5 Minutes  | basin. Sources told KUNC that could include buying water from farmers aranchers to help boost levels in Lake Powell and Lake Mead.  |
| 5/25/2022  | worning Euron                              |                                | 5 Williaces                                      | As the Colorado River shrinks, water managers see promise in recycling  |
|  | All Things Considered /                    | 6:45 AM / 8:45 AM / 4:44       |  | sewage. Cities in the arid Southwest are investing in water reuse technolokeeping more water in the system and bolstering drinking supplies in an a                                       |
| 9/14/2022  | Morning Edition                            | PM                             | 5 Minutes  | hit hard by drought.  |
| Issue #3: Politics / C   | Colorado Election Issues. With 1           | the midterm elections coming   | up, KUNC continues to                            | o air stories that inform the voter throughout the listening area. Voting in local  |
| elections is a pillar  | of the service KUNC offers to c            |                                | torate is part of our dfocus on elections ar | luty to our audience. Throughout the recent quarter, KUNC's programming has   |
|  |  |                                |  | League of Women Voters cancels one candidate forum, moves forward w   |
|  |  |                                |  | another. The League of Women Voters has canceled a forum this week for  |
| 9/21/2022  | All Things Considered /Morning Edition | 6:45 AM / 8:45 AM / 4:44PM | 5 Minutes  | candidates in Congressional Districts 4 and 8, but is moving forward withcandidate forum next week for House Districts 48, 50 and 64.   |
|  |  |                                |  | Lawmakers join activists in the push for a Home Care Worker Bill of Right   |
|  | All Things Considered /                    | 6:45 AM / 8:45 AM / 4:44       |  | Lawmakers and activists rallied this week at the state Capitol, demanding legislature address low pay and unsafe working conditions for home-car  |
| 9/16/2022  | Morning Edition                            | PM                             | 5 Minutes  | workers.  |
|  |  |                                |  | Criminal trial date set for Mesa County Clerk and Recorder Tina Peters asfaces multiple legal battles. Mesa County Clerk and Recorder Tina Peter  |
|  |  |                                |  | pleaded not guilty on Wednesday to charges related to election tamperin   |
|  | All Things Considered /                    | 7:30AM & 9:30AM /              |  | and a trial date was set for March 6. Meanwhile, judges have blockedtestimony in a separate contempt of court case against her and thrown ou  |
| 9/9/2022   | Morning Edition                            | 3:30PM & 4:30PM                | 45 Seconds                                       | lawsuit she filed last month.   |
|  |  |                                |  | Colorado senator quits Republican party over election deniers, climate chainaction. Sen. Kevin Priola blasted his Republican colleagues for what he ca                                    |
| 0/22/2022  | All Things Considered /                    | 7:30AM & 9:30AM /              | AE Cocondo                                       | their indifference toward the Jan. 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol, and refusing   |
| 9/22/2022  | Morning Edition                            | 3:30PM & 4:30PM                | 45 Seconds                                       | take action on climate change.  |
|  |  |                                |  | tal health issues, to transgender and LGBTQ issues, to scholastiv and acheivemeJarter, KUNC shifted away from COVID coverage in school and returned to focus                              |
|  |  | on education                   | n and social issues am                           | long youth.   |
|  |  |                                |  | CU President Todd Saliman On The Job, Serving Students, and Working T   |
|  |  |                                |  | Improve Diversity. Todd Saliman was officially selected as the 24th presideof the University of Colorado system this year. He previously served as inte                                   |
|  | All Things Considered /                    | 7:51 AM / 9:51AM /             |  | president since July 20-21. KUNC's Beau Baker spoke with him recently toout what such a seemingly big job entails and what he's working toward  |
| 9/7/2022   | Morning Edition                            | 4:50PM                         | 7 Minutes  | the CU system.  |
|  |  |                                |  | Colorado teens 'Slay the Runway' with program aimed to promote LGBTO  |
|  |  |                                |  | community. Creating safe spaces for LGBTQ+ teens to express themselvesnow more important than ever. Organizations in Colorado are working t   |
|  | All Things Considered /                    | GAE ANA / DAE ANA / A.A.       |  | create more of these spaces, including Longmont's Firehouse Art Center a  |
| 08/17/022  | All Things Considered /Morning Edition | 6:45 AM / 8:45 AM / 4:44PM | 5 Minutes  | the Boulder Public Library. Together they created Slay the Runway in 202which is a design program for LGBTQ+ teens.   |
|  |  |                                |  | Aurora Public School staff and teachers may soon see an 8.5% raise. Auro  |
|  | All Things Considered /                    | 6:45 AM / 8:45 AM / 4:44       |  | Public Schools and the teachers union have come to an agreement to incre-wages for the upcoming school year by 8.5% across the board for all sta  |
| 8/15/2022  | Morning Edition                            | PM                             | 5 Minutes  | members. It still has to be ratified by the union.  |
|  |  |                                |  |   |
|  |  |                                |  |   |
|  |  |                                |  |   |
|  |  |                                |  |   |
|  | 1  |                                |  |   |
|  |  |                                |  |   |
|  |  |                                |  |   |
|  |  |                                |  |   |