

Issue: Art in the Community

Discussion: Sementa Matthews encouraged listeners to sign up for the Young Writers Classes for young writers 12 years old and up beginning October 12 from 10-12. Cheryl Carvajal, wife of VSU president and author will teach the class. They are free. The second annual Artoberfest is October 26 from 9-4 at the Turner Art Center on Patterson St. Valdosta. Live demos by artists, live music, food trucks, and vendors.

Time: 7-9am Date: 10/1/2019 Length: @5 minutes

Program: Jumpstart with Bill and Terry

Guest(s): Sementa Matthews, director Turner Art Center

Issue: Foster/Adoption

Discussion: Jay Watkins, pastor of Redland Baptist, informed listeners of Camp Rock, a ministry for children in crisis. He said 15,000+ children in Georgia are in foster care with 1,300-1,500 children in our area. They provide summer camp and Christmas for foster families/children and are having a Fall Festival Oct. 19 & 20 to raise funds to provide Christmas for foster children. They are an official Faith-based Foster Care organization training over 50 families last year. Oct. 15 is an informational meeting 6:30 p.m. for interested persons to be involved. Camps/Christmas are kept secret because of the children in crisis. Pastor Watkins, who has adopted 4 children and currently fosters also, shares with area churches how to become in foster care. FMI 229-244-1920 or www.camprockga.com

Time: 7-9am Date: 10/11/2019 Length: @5 minutes

Program: Jumpstart with Bill and Terry

Guest(s): Jay Watkins, pastor

Issue: International Children's ministry fundraiser

Discussion: John Mark Eager of the Mailbox Club invited listeners to the annual fundraising banquet, November 7 at 6 pm James Rainwater Center Valdosta, GA. Mission leaders from around the world will be giving testimony in person and by skype during the evening. This Hope will be singing.

Time: 7-9am Date: 10/29/2019 Length: @5 minutes

Program: Jumpstart with Bill and Terry

Guest(s): John Mark Eager, CEO of the Mailbox Club and Mikah Boudreaux of This Hope

Issue: Art Talk with Sementha Matthews

Discussion: What's new at the Turner Art Center, Valdosta, GA. New Art Park ribbon cutting back in October at the Artober Fest. Free Jazz concert in the new Art Park, Nov. 8 from 6-9 pm. Food/drinks available for sale. Bring a lawn chair. New gallery exhibits celebrating women in art.

Time:7-9am Date: 11/5/2019 Length: @5 minutes

Program: Jumpstart with Bill and Terry

Guest(s): Sementha Matthews,

Issue: Walk for Life: Feel the beat

Discussion: Becky Deas, director of Options Now Pregnancy Clinic invited listeners to their 2nd annual Walk For Life, Sat. 11/9 Drexel Park with registration at 8 a.m. 180 babies have been saved so far this year. Options Now is celebrating 28 years in Valdosta.

Time:7-9am Date: 11/6/2019 Length: @5 minutes

Program: Jumpstart with Bill and Terry

Guest(s): Becky Deas, director Options Now Pregnancy Clinic

Issue: Furthering your education/new program at Wiregrass Technical College

Discussion: Lisa Griffin, director of the new Opticianry program at Wiregrass informed listeners of the new opportunity of study. She also encouraged listeners to register this week as registration is free.

Time:7-9am Date: 11/6/2019 Length: @5 minutes

Program: Jumpstart with Bill and Terry

Guest(s): Lisa Griffin, director Opticianry Program Wiregrass Tech

Issue: We Love Valdosta Day

Discussion: David Tew invited listeners to the annual "We Love Valdosta Day" at Morningside Baptist. Car show, antique tractors, bounce houses, lazer tag and climbing wall. A special recognition of the military at noon.

Time:7-9am Date: 11/8/2019 Length: @5 minutes

Program: Jumpstart with Bill and Terry

Guest(s): David Tew, Minister of Music at Morningside Baptist Church

Issue: Worship and testimony encouragement

Discussion: Greg Powell, youth minister at Hahira UMC invited listeners to come aside and be encouraged with a night of worship and testimony with Seventh Day Slumber, Saturday, November 16 at 6 p.m.

Time: 7-9am Date: 11/14/19 Length: @5 minutes

Program: Jumpstart with Bill and Terry

Guest(s): Greg Powell, youth minister Hahira United Methodist Church

Issue: Art Tuesday/Christmas at the Turner Art Center

Discussion: Sementa Matthews informed listeners of Christmas happenings at the art center. The annual Snow Village is up and free hot chocolate for visitors. New shows are in the galleries. Christmas stocking ideas are classes like cooking, pottery, writing, art etc along with Broadway show tickets. The Turner Art Center is open 10-6 daily and 10-4 Friday/Saturday. Check out facebook for latest video/news

Time: 7-9am Date: 12/3/2019 Length: @5 minutes

Program: Jumpstart with Bill and Terry

Guest(s): Sementa Matthews, director