A Conversation with Congressman Paul Ryan (C4)	10-03-2012	US Only Excluding C3 stations	28:30

Summary:

Congressman Paul Ryan talks via phone with Focus president, Jim Daly. Congressman Ryan shares thoughts about his family and beliefs that inspire him to serve our country in the U.S. House of Representatives and now to be a vice-presidential candidate in the upcoming 2012 election. He believes in the rights of the individual, in religious freedom, and the role of government to protect those rights. He also strongly supports the sanctity of human life and marriage as between one man and one woman. Congressman Ryan feels the present government leadership is steering our country in the wrong direction and he hopes to help change direction back to core principles of the Founding Fathers.
