ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST:

FIREWORKS SAFETY: Chief Freddie Broome gave listeners safety tips and warnings for the July 4th holiday. Class C is legal in our area. Be responsible and follow directions on the package. Use them on a parking lot and not dry grass. Do not drink and use fireworks.

7/2/14, Jumpstart 7-9 a.m.

WILDLIFE FOSTER CARE: DNR officer, Daniel North, shared with listeners what to do if finding orphaned wildlife. It is illegal to possess predators and rabies carriers. Ex. Coyotes, raccoons, wildcats, etc. Deer, and bear young are not a problem but call the DNR and do not touch them. Officer North said for more information contact the DNR www.gadnr.org.

8/06/14 Jumpstart 7-9 a.m.

HUNGRY AT HOME: Teresa Parkerson talked to listeners about bridging the nutritional gap between school and home. Hungry at Home began with 69 children and now serve over 1000 children in 5 school systems in elementary, middle and high school. Over 100 volunteers keep it going along with contributions from churches, individuals and civic groups. To volunteer and for more information www.hungryathome.org or on facebook.

8/21/14 Jumpstart 7-9 a.m.

PEACH CITY WALK-IN CLINIC: Myron Faircloth informed listeners of the new clinic opened in Morven, GA. The community donated a building, air conditioning, supplies, cleaning and carpeting the building to ready it for patients. They do not take insurance, medicare or Medicaid. A $50 fee is all patients pay. They are open Tuesday and Thursday with a phone number for emergencies. Rural areas usually have no health care access.
