

Offering Hope When You Need It Most

July 15, 2015

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

CHILD ABUSE SEMINAR: Brittany Hammock of Children's Advocacy Center asked listeners to participate in a seminar for churches, businesses or anyone dealing with children. Spotting abuse and how to report. It is now a legal obligation besides moral. At the Egg & I April 23 at 8 a.m.

04/01/2015

HOUSE OF HOPE: Sharon Wagner and Jami Duncan of House of Hope a place for women with addictions invited listeners to the 5K Color Run as a benefit for the home. A thrift store "Restored Treasures" has been opened on Hill Ave. also.

04/29/2015

CHILDREN AND MUSIC: Lauren Hodges informed listeners of the South Georgia String Project. Classes for area children and training for VSU music students teaching music. End of year concert May 4 at 6 pm. Whitehead Auditorium and free. Info for interested parents and students for next year classes.

05/01/2015

LETTER CARRIER FOOD DRIVE: Maryam Tiger of Second Harvest South Georgia asked listeners to fill the bag with non-perishable food. Letter carriers will pick up Saturday, May 9. Volunteers needed to transport and sort at the Food Bank. One in four people struggle with hunger daily...mostly children.

05/06/2015

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF THE BLIND: Gaylon Tootle, president of the Greater Valdosta Chapter encouraged listeners to come to the meet and greet 4-6 p.m. June 3 at the S. Georgia Library Woodrow Wilson Dr. They educated and improve life for the blind. Valdosta is particularly challenging without public transportation. The sighted are welcomed.

06/03/2015

LIFEHOUSE MINISTRIES: Larae Moore invited listeners to a benefit concert with Among the Thirsty Sunday, June 28 6:30 p.m. Northside Baptist Tifton, GA. Lifehouse helps single moms in difficulties due to unplanned pregnancies with housing, education and parenting.

06/23/2015

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Bill Tidwell'. The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Bill Tidwell, Pres/GM