

Offering Hope When You Need It Most

August 3, 2017

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

James Eunice Legacy 5K: Fundraiser in memory of James Eunice. The Grand Prix race begins/ends at Kappa Alpha Fraternity 205 E Ann St. Valdosta. Benefits graduating seniors with scholarships in the South Georgia area.

4/4/17

Okeefeenokee Fire: Randy Patten, Emergency Manager of Lanier County informed listeners about the Westmims fire burning through the Okeefeenokee Swamp. Road closures and evacuations were noted. Burn bans and parts of the NWR closed. Texting westmims 22828 or online www.inciweb.nwccg.gov were places for more info.

5/1/2017

Pet Therapy: Jessica McKinney, patient relations at SGMC invited listeners to participate in Pet Therapy Class, May in Albany, GA. Class trains owners and is free though a $30 handbook is required. SGMC is looking to revive and broaden Paws patrol. FMI Jessica.mckinney@sgmc.org or 229-259-4412

5/2/2017

Car tune-up/car questions: Timmy Mayer of D&D Automotive gave listeners great advice for keeping cars fit. Oil changes, batteries, tires and engine light was covered.

6/7/2017

Keeping Bees and their importance: Cary Kight, bee keeper informed listeners about the importance of bees to the economy and agriculture. He encouraged backyard beekeeping.

6/16/2017

Weather Preparation: Randy Patten, Emergency Manager of Lanier County invited listeners to "Why Was I Not Warned?", a town hall type meeting to learn all the different ways to be warned: weather radio, code red. Meteorologist, Kerri Copello from National Weather Services spoke.

6/22/2017

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Bill Tidwell'. The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Bill Tidwell, Pres./GM