

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

April 4, 2018 - Tax Tips: Larry Brandon, CPA gave listeners tips for filing taxes. Tax deadline being April 17 because of holiday/weekend. Look out for common mistakes like wrong entry line, overlook deductions. Remedy is to set aside and come back and go over carefully. Tax law changes for 2018 passed and standard deductions increased. Significant tax changes for 2018

April 26, 2018 - FCA Brooks County Schools: Nick Hampton, campus minister/overseer of Crosspointe Church, Quitman, GA and director of FCA for Brooks County informed listeners of FCA purpose. FCA mentors young athletes and the goal next year is a chaplain for every sports team.

May 4, 2018 - Relay For Life: Emily La Montage of American Cancer Society, Relay for Life invited listeners to Lowndes High School for Relay For Life, May 4, 2018 from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Lunch, snacks from community businesses, kids zone, games, celebration of life and luminaries for cancer survivors and victims. www.relayforlife.org

May 18, 2018 – Johnny Philman, retired corrections officer encouraged listeners to attend the Iron Sharpens Iron, a men and boys event at Live Oak Church of God with VSU coach, Kerwin Bell.

June 5, 2018 - Turner Art Museum: Sementha Matthews, Executive Director announced activities for summer camps for children. Classes include, guitar, photography/editing, pottery etc. Also available are concerts, yoga, culinary, sewing, etiquette. Scholarships are available.

June 6, 2018 - Summer Sun Protection: Terri Wildes, nurse practitioner gave tips for sun protection. At least 30 SPF applied 15 minutes to soak in before going out then every 2 hours. Seek shade, take breaks, wear long sleeved shirts and hats. Her favorite sun screen is Blue Lizard.

June 12, 2018 - Volunteer Fair: Cari Brown-Hawley, volunteer coordinator for Halcyon Hospice, organized a volunteer fair featuring LAMP, ARC, Halcyon Hospice, The Haven and Veteran's First Light. This was to give the community an opportunity to explore ways to help their neighbors.

June 21, 2018 - Summer Mosquito Problems: Courtney Sheeley, of the South Health District gave listeners tips to keep mosquitoes in check this summer. Use Deet, wear white/light long sleeves and pants (cover up). Check everyday for water laying around the yard where mosquitoes breed. Flower pot saucers, change water in bird bath, tire swings etc.

These were aired on the morning show, JumpStart which is Monday-Friday 7-9 a.m.

Bill Tidwell, President/GM

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY BROADCAST FCC ISSUES REPORT (For Radio Station's Public File)
Apr/May/June 2018

Date 04/10/2018 Title Protecting Your Child From Sexual Abuse Length 26 minutes Description You can approach the issue of sexual abuse with your children with confidence and in an age-appropriate way. In this one day Focus on the Family broadcast Jim Daly & John Fuller talk with Justin and Lindsey Holcomb about their children's book, God Made All of Me. They give an overview of the problem, how parents can validate that God made our bodies good, and practical ways to approach the challenging issue. Justin also briefly shares on his abuse survivor story. Additional audio will be online only for parents of teens on how to approach the topic if they haven't in the past.

Date 4/18/2018 Title Protecting Life and Family Values in the Senate Length 23 minutes Description Sitting in a seat of power in the U.S. government is a big responsibility...and protecting family values is not an easy task. Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell and Senator James Lankford provide insights about protecting pre-born babies, the impact of confirming federal judges, and how strong families can help point the country in the right direction.

Date 05/11/2018 Title Becoming a Gospel-Driven Mom Length 23 minutes Description Mom: What your kids need most from you is a mom who loves Jesus. In this one day Focus on the Family broadcast, Jim Daly and John Fuller talk with Brooke McGlothlin about her book, Gospel Centered Mom. They discuss Brooke's story of becoming a mom and the struggles she faced when she was given, "hard-to-handle" boys. She shares how moms need to abandon a "ME" gospel and embrace the True Gospel (the awareness you will never be enough but that Christ is enough). She reminds moms that when they are stressed they need to STOP: Submit your thoughts to Christ Tell yourself the truth, Open the eyes of your understanding, Persist in prayer.

Date 05/21/2018 Title Thriving in Your Role as a Dad Length 23 minutes Description Rob Stennett will quickly tell you that he's not the perfect dad...but he's being the best dad he can be to his four daughters. If you feel insecure in your role as a father, Rob offers fun and helpful advice, as he discusses some of the different hats that a dad wears, and the joy you can find in raising your kids. He'll share about the most important job you'll ever have...

Date 6/04/2018 Title Engaging Conflict in a Productive Way Length 23 minutes Description You can engage in conflict with your spouse in a way that actually strengthens the marriage. In this one day Focus on the Family broadcast, Jim Daly and John Fuller talk with Deb & Ron DeArmond authors of Don't Go to Bed Angry Stay Up and Fight about how couples can engage in healthy conflict. The DeArmonds share on how they entered marriage ill-equipped to handle conflict and how they've learned to make rules for fighting fair. They share on the four most common communication traps: silence, sulking, sarcasm and sound and how couples can build communication bridges by learning to SPEAK: seek permission to have the discussion, present the issue, explore solutions, acknowledge what you hear, and keep focused on the present..

Date 06/13/2018 Title Breaking Down Racial Barriers with God's Love I-II Length 25 minutes Description When it comes to racial issues, the culture has a sin problem, not a skin problem. Jim Daly has a candid conversation with a panel of guests in Memphis, Tennessee, fifty years after the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr. The panel challenges the Church to lead the way in bringing God's message of love to the culture.