

May 26, 2017

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Hungry at Home: Hungry at Home invited listeners to their Pack-a-Thon on MLKing Day of Service, January 13 from 8-5pm. Teams packed food in backpacks that are distributed to children in Lowndes, Valdosta City, Echols, Lanier and Berrien schools who receive free or reduced lunches.

January 6, 2017

Adel Tornado: Listeners were told ways to help with the tornado relief for Sunshine Acres. Also, road closings and encouraged to stay away from damaged areas. EMS personnel gave tips on preparations families/individuals can do to be better prepared in disasters.

January 23, 2017

Tornado Relief Follow up: Sherry Buresh of All Hands Volunteers gave listeners an update on the Cook County/Adel clean up. She called for volunteers to help with the continued work.

January 31, 2017

Grilling For James: Grilling For James raises funds for scholarships to local high school students. Sam's Club, Norman Drive Valdosta, GA hosts Friday and Saturday, February 3 & 4 and again February 10 & 11.

February 1, 2017

Hospice of South Georgia Fundraiser: Listeners were encouraged to attend the Hospice ½ Marathon and Dewey Color Dash, February 25, 2017. Funds are for Hospice of South Georgia.

February 23, 2017

Wheelchairs for the World: Duane Roark encouraged listeners to donate wheelchairs, walkers, and canes to be given to Joni and Friends, Wheelchairs for the World. www.joniandfriends.org

March 7, 2017

Ministry: Missions, foreign and local were presented to listeners. Missions in Tanzania with Grace Baptist of Mason, Ohio and SIKM of Honduras were the foreign ministries. Locally, prison ministry Azalea City Prison Ministry and Refuge of Hope working both in and out of prison with men. Living Bridges Ministry shared their many avenues of help for children, clothing exchange, Transformation program and Mom's Connection.

March 15, 2017

Bill Tidwell, Pres./GM

