Topic : Talented Teen Club: Building Teen Self-Esteem

Guests: Jaunai Walker, Renee Roper, Renee Iall, Landy Cajuste

Talented Teen Club has a rich history of community involvement spanning over the last six years, within which we have been known to produce members of impeccable character and a firm belief in unselfish service to others. We have strived tirelessly to shape and mold our teenagers and young adults, by nurturing their minds and bodies with a mix of various community service events along with the mind tingling excitement of other programs designed specifically for the core members active in the club. The volunteer services have included the Palm Beach Film Festival, Sunfest, Jazz fest, Kaledoscope, and recently the Heart Walk. The Club's mission is to build self-esteem while providing a medium for the members to display their talents. The annual Be-you-ti-ful Competition at the Kravitz Center hosted by Ebony Fashion Model Jada Collins gives the members the opportunity to display their talents whether it be in music, modeling, acting, poetry, stepping or dancing and a chance to earn scholarship money. The club has expanded to include members in all of South Florida and as far as Orlando. This year the club wants to extend its services to youth in foster homes. There are over fifty group foster homes in the West Palm Beach area.

The Current Graylen Houston and his board were recently sworn in and share with the host and community of their future objectives for the organization and how the community will benefit.

- Air Dates: 8/4, 8/6, 9/8, 9/10

Topic: VOICE FOR THE CHILDREN

Guests: Marianne Malky (Pres of VFC), Republican Priscilla Taylor (Rep 84th District), and Rev. Ken Williamson (Rev. Unity Church)

Summary: This episode highlights the organization, Voice For the Children; in which the founder Marianne Malky makes the community aware of parental abduction.

Marianne experienced this in 1975 when her son was kidnapped at the age of five by his father and her estranged ex-husband. She then went on to Congress and established Voice For the Children, to speak out against this rising problem. Eventually, she was reacquainted with her son at the age of 18. Often children are abducted by a familiar person. Rep. Priscilla Taylor of District 84 and Rev. Ken Williamson of Unity Church lend their support to the cause and speak on how such an occurrence can be prevented. The organization helps to reunite families with their missing children and is working to pass laws against such crimes.

ENVIRONMENT

Topic: Red Cross

Guests: Laura Courie, South Florida Water Management; Jose Tagle, City of West Palm Beach; Mayco F., Florida Power & Light; Joseph Hansen, American Red Cross; Joan Radabaugh of Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League; and Victoria Williams of My Safe Florida Homes.

The show highlights hurricane preparedness by having guests from the city of West Palm; American Red Cross; South Florida Management and Florida Power & Light. Each agency provided a list for what the community should do during a Tropical Storm warning such as which foods to store, where to find shelter if needed, and who they should contact for further direction. The show also includes two packages; with the Animal Rescue League and My Safe Florida Home. The Animal Rescue Package covers the importance of preparing your animals in the event of a storm, by being certain they have all necessary medication and are micro-chipped in the event the owner is separated from their pet. The My Safe Florida Home Package is an interview with Rep. Victoria Williams. Victoria gives the public tips on saving money through getting their homes inspected. She provides more detailed information of how homeowners may protect their homes during a storm and the necessary steps to take if there is any damage.
