Guest: Gloria Shuttlesworth, Rose Anne Brown, Troy Perry and Mami Kisner of the City of Riviera Beach

Summary: AnEta Sewell interviews Gloria Shuttlesworth, Rose Anne Brown, Troy Perry and Mami Kisner of the City of Riviera Beach. For over seven years the city's signature event, the Riviera Beach Music Festival, has been very successful in attracting local, national and international performers for a three-day musical celebration. We have earned a reputation throughout the State of Florida and across the country for being one of the best Music Festivals in the southeast. The City of Riviera Beach has an appreciation for music as a universal language that brings hundreds of thousands of diverse people together from various backgrounds. This event began as a Jazz and Blues Festival and has grown into a Music Festival appealing to a wide range of music lovers with peak attendance of over 20,000. The Festival Takes place April 11-14, 2008. Beyond the national star power that will take the stage at this years music festival will be the opportunity to create future stars from our own shore. The City of Riviera Beach has made a commitment to continue the rich tradition of nurturing talent by creating a scholarship for High School Seniors in Riviera Beach interested in pursuing the performing arts in the secondary education.

Topic: Talented Teen Club: Building Teen Self-Esteem

Summary: Talented Teen Club has a rich history of community involvement spanning over the last six years, within which we have been known to produce members of impeccable character and a firm belief in unselfish service to others. We have strived tirelessly to shape and mold our teenagers and young adults, by nurturing their minds and bodies with a mix of various community service events along with the mind-tingling excitement of other programs designed specifically for the core members active in the club. The volunteer services have included the Palm Beach Film Festival, Sunfest, Jazz fest, Kaliedoscope, and recently the Heart Walk. The Club's mission is to build self-esteem while providing a medium for the members to display their talents. The annual Be-you-ti-ful Competition at the Kravitz Center hosted by Ebony Fashion Model Jada Collins gives the members the opportunity to display their talents whether it be in music, modeling, acting, poetry, stepping or dancing and a chance to earn scholarship money. The club has expanded to include members in all of South Florida and as far as Orlando. This year the club wants to extend its services to youth in foster homes. There are over fifty group foster homes in the West Palm. If you are interested please contact talented teen www.talentedteenclub.org

Topic: Teen Temps, Inc

Summary: Teen Temps, Inc. is a community-based, non-profit organization with a mission of providing future generations of youth with preparation and experiences through a "career opportunity system." Our focus is on delivering customized, motivating, and meaningful job placement or work experiences to underserved youth through the following key components:

- Provision of comprehensive counseling and guidance in occupation and career preparation;
- Provision of work-based and community-based learning to impart academic mastery and social skills competencies for a range of employment settings; and
- Placement in paid and unpaid apprenticeships, internships, externships and jobs leading to formal credentials for "value-added" occupational and career choices.

The innovation of Teen Temps is that it is structured to operate with youth and young adults similarly to the way a temporary employment agency operates with its employee clientele providing placement and matching of employees with employers for long term advancement through permanent placement, apprenticeships, customized training and / or postsecondary education. Teen Temps will begin with efforts to attract and retain teens in grades 9 - 12 through participation in career exploration and identification as a component of its after-school program.
