Topic : Hurricane Special

Guests: Laura Courie, South Florida Water Management; Jose Tagle, City of West Palm Beach; Mayco F., Florida Power & Light; Joseph Hansen, American Red Cross; Joan Radabaugh of Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League; and Victoria Williams of My Safe Florida Homes.

The show highlights hurricane preparedness by having guests from the city of West Palm; American Red Cross; South Florida Management and Florida Power & Light. Each agency provided a list for what the community should do during a Tropical Storm warning such as which foods to store, where to find shelter if needed, and who they should contact for further direction. The show also includes two packages; with the Animal Rescue League and My Safe Florida Home. The Animal Rescue Package covers the importance of preparing your animals in the event of a storm, by being certain they have all necessary medication and are micro-chipped in the event the owner is separated from their pet. The My Safe Florida Home Package is an interview with Rep. Victoria Williams. Victoria gives the public tips on saving money through getting their homes inspected. She provides more detailed information of how homeowners may protect their homes during a storm and the necessary steps to take if there is any damage.

Topic: Teen Temps, Inc.

Teen Temps, Inc. is a community-based, non-profit organization with a mission of providing future generations of youth with preparation and experiences through a “career opportunity system.” Our focus is on delivering customized, motivating, and meaningful job placement or work experiences to underserved youth through the following key components:

- Provision of comprehensive counseling and guidance in occupation and career preparation;
- Provision of work-based and community-based learning to impart academic mastery and social skills competencies for a range of employment settings; and Placement in paid and unpaid apprenticeships, internships, externships and jobs leading to formal credentials for “value-added” occupational and career choices.
- The innovation of Teen Temps is that it is structured to operate with youth and young adults similarly to the way a temporary employment agency operates with its employee clientele providing placement and matching of employees with employers for long term advancement through permanent placement, apprenticeships, customized training and / or postsecondary education. Teen Temps will begin with efforts to attract and retain teens in grades 9 - 12 through participation in career exploration and identification as a component of its after-school program.

Topic : Talented Teen Club: Building Teen Self-Esteem

Guests: Jaunai Walker, Renee Roper, Renee lall, Landy Cajuste

Talented Teen Club has a rich history of community involvement spanning over the last six years, within which we have been known to produce members of impeccable character and a firm belief in unselfish service to others. We have strived tirelessly to shape and mold our teenagers and young adults, by nurturing their minds and bodies with a mix of various community service events along with the mind tingling excitement of other programs designed specifically for the core members active in the club. The volunteer services have included the Palm Beach Film Festival, Sunfest, Jazz fest, Kaliedoscope, and recently the Heart Walk. The Club's mission is to build self-esteem while providing a medium for the members to display their talents. The annual Be-you-ti-ful Competition at the Kravitz Center hosted by Ebony Fashion Model Jada Collins gives the members the opportunity to display their talents whether it be in music, modeling, acting, poetry, stepping or dancing and a chance to earn scholarship money. The club has expanded to include members in all of South Florida and as far as Orlando. This year the club wants to extend it's services to youth in foster homes. There are over fifty group foster homes in the West Palm Beach area.
