North Korea issues military warning to U.S. and South Korea	SRN News Reports: North Korea's leader is putting the United States on notice. Kim Jong Un said his North Korean military should "thoroughly annihilate" the U-S and South Korea if provoked. According to state media, he also vowed to boost national defense to cope with what he called an unprecedented U.S.-led confrontation. North Korea has increased its warlike rhetoric in recent months in response to an expansion of U.S.-South Korean military drills.	01/01/24	4 minutes
Senators likely to tackle social media ills in 2024	SRN News Reports: A number of Senate committees will be looking more closely at the impact social media has on teens and younger children. But it's impact on broader society is also of concern, especially with a national election right around the corner. Democrat John Fetterman is the most recent to speak out about the ill effects of social media. Telling CBS News checking his social media worsened his mental health after he was elected and after he was temporarily hospitalized for clinical depression last year.	01/02/24	4 minutes
The book that changed the world	On today's broadcast of Love Worth Finding, Dr. Adrian Rogers covers: There has been no book that has ever influenced or impacted the world like the book of Romans in the Bible. Supreme Court to decide Trump presidential ballot case	SRN News Reports: The Supreme Court will decide whether Donald Trump can be kept off the 2024 presidential ballot. The justices agreed to take a Colorado case, inserting themselves in the presidential campaign. The move came after Colorado's Supreme Court ruled that Trump should not be on the Republican primary ballot, declaring him ineligible for his role in the January 6th riot three years ago. With arguments to be heard next month, the nation's highest court will consider for the first time the meaning and reach of the Constitution's "insurrection" clause.	01/05/24	4 minutes

Pro-Palestinian demonstrators protest near White House	SRN News Reports: Thousands of pro-Palestinian demonstrators protested near the White House this weekend. Washington was one of several cities worldwide that held events calling for an end to Israeli military action in Gaza. Outside the White House, thousands gathered with people holding signs questioning President Biden's support for Israel in the nearly 100-day war against Hamas. The president has said Israel has a right to go after the terrorists who attacked on October 7th, but he's faced increasing opposition from fellow Democrats as the war has dragged on.	01/13/24	4 minutes

But former President Donald Trump's decisive win in the Iowa caucuses and the departure of Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis from the race on Sunday has only heightened what had already been a widespread sense of inevitability. That has given the visits this past week by New York Rep. Helping adult children buy a home	On today's broadcast, Chuck Bentley of Crown Financial Ministries covered: Many young adults need help buying homes. Tamara Costa is vice president of advanced planning at Fidelity. She says helping our children purchase a home is a way to transfer wealth or estate tax savings while financially impacting their lives. You can gift children a down payment. This is often the biggest hurdle to buying a house. A larger down payment can help someone qualify for a lower mortgage rate by making them more attractive as buyers. In 2023, you could give individuals up to $17,000 without having to pay a gift tax. Involving both parents raises the total to $34,000 per child which is IRS acceptable. You can also make a family loan. IRS guidelines allow for intra-family loans with minimum interest rates. The annual interest rate for a long-term intra-family loan of nine or more years is much lower than the current mortgage rate. The IRS requires an arms-length transaction – in which money is loaned in exchange for a promissory note. This must be properly documented and may require a tax attorney's guidance. You can also become a landlord. Buy the house and let your child pay you rent. Set a reasonable amount because the IRS might flag rent-free living as a gift. Being a landlord can help your child develop healthy financial habits. Later, you can sell it to them. In each case, pay attention to tax laws. Providing a	01/25/24	2 minutes

Most Americans feel they pay too much in taxes, AP-NORC poll finds	SRN News Reports: A majority of U.S. taxpayers feel they pay too much in taxes, with many saying that they receive a poor value in return. Adults who are 60 and older are more likely than younger adults to perceive taxes, generally, as fair. A new poll from the University of Chicago Harris School of Public Policy and The Associated Press-NORC Center for Public Affairs Research shows about two thirds of U.S. taxpayers say they spend "too much" on federal income taxes. About 7 in 10 say the same about local property taxes. Meanwhile, roughly 6 in 10 feel that way about state sales tax.	01/29/24	4 minutes

Japanese data shows China nudged Japan aside as No. 1 auto exporter	SRN News Reports: Data from a Japanese auto industry association show that China overtook Japan as the world's largest vehicle exporter last year. Much of the increase was driven by shipments of electric and hybrid vehicles. Japan's car exports totaled 4.2 million in 2022. It had held the role as top exporter since 2017. The Japan Automobile Manufacturers Association reported Japan exported 4.42 million vehicles in 2023. That's up 16% from a year earlier, while domestic auto sales totaled nearly 4.78 million vehicles. According to figures released earlier by the China Association of Automobile Manufacturers, China exported 4.91 million vehicles last year. Marriage confrontation and how to handle it	On today's broadcast of Love Worth Finding, Dr Adrian Rogers asks: Is it common to debate with your mate? Sure it is. Sometimes, spouses get into it. 	confrontations. It is how you handle them. James 1:19 is a verse that changes duels into duets. It says, “.... let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to wrath.” Or, in simpler terms: “Tune in, tone down, sweeten up.” Tune in: All communication begins with listening. Love your spouse with your ears. Tone down: Learn the vicious power of the tongue. Words can give life, or they can rip everything to shreds. They can build a home, or they can burn it to the ground. Sweeten up: Resolve your hurts, do not dissolve your home. Don’t practice avoidance. Confront the situation at hand. We tend to back off and retreat when things get heated, thinking that the problem will go away on its own. It doesn’t. Don’t practice appeasement. To compromise is one thing; that’s where both give. But to appease is something else. One person dominates the issue and the other is left to internalize their feelings. This will result in a much bigger issue later. Don’t practice aggression. No sarcasm, no bullying. The Bible says “speak the truth in love.” Choose the right time to discuss, with the right tone, on the right turf. Learn to practice accommodation. Practice acceptance.

Senate GOP helps Democrats pass aid for Ukraine, Israel and Taiwan	SRN News Reports: By a vote of 70-29 the Senate has passed a controversial aid package that includes $60-BILLION for Ukraine. The $95-BILLION bill also includes money for Israel and Taiwan. 22 Republicans voted with nearly all Democrats to pass the bill with a final vote of 70-29. Supporters argued that abandoning Ukraine could embolden Russian President Vladimir Putin and threaten national security across the globe. It's a matter of changing your mindset and making a lifestyle change to	02/20/24	2 minutes

	accomplish your goal. Let's get practical. First, you have to create a truly functional budget. Look at all that you own, all that you owe, and all of your obligations. This gives you a clear picture of where your money's going and where it's needed. Plus, it will identify the problems that need to be addressed. Now, as much as I believe in getting debt-free, I recommend that you begin by saving $1,000 for real emergencies. Then, consider taking on an extra job for a while. Over the years, I've worked multiple jobs myself. The extra income will enable you to quickly build an emergency fund so you can begin reducing debt. A good friend once posed this question to me, "What are you doing after 5:00 pm?" It was in the context of earning more income to support my growing family. Solomon expressed it in this way in Ecclesiastes 11:6, "Sow your seed in the morning, and at evening let your hands not be idle, for you do not know which will succeed, whether this or that, or whether both will do equally well."

It’s enough to make us wonder if the apostle Paul was out of touch with reality when he wrote, “Be anxious for nothing.” “Be anxious for less” would have been a sufficient challenge. Or “Be anxious only on Thursdays.” But Paul doesn’t seem to offer any leeway. Be anxious for nothing. Is this what he truly meant? Well, not exactly. My personal interpretation is, “Don’t let anything in life leave you perpetually breathless and in angst.” The presence of anxiety is unavoidable, but the prison of anxiety? China's congress ends with a show of unity behind Xi's vision	SRN News Reports: China's national congress has just concluded its annual session with the usual show of near-unanimous support for the ruling Communist Party's blueprint for the year. The National People's Congress approved a revised law that directs China's cabinet to follow Xi's vision. The week long event has highlighted how China's politics have become ever more calibrated to elevate leader Xi Jinping. The agenda lacked the usual news conference by the premier, who in the past was largely in charge of economic affairs as the party's No. 2 leader. Many struggle with the desire to quit their job, give up on the business they started, or abandon any hope of ever being able to live debt-free. If you're discouraged or exhausted, don't give up. The Bible holds a wonderful story of persisting through prayer in the midst of despair. In Luke 11, Jesus taught His disciples the power of persistence. Bird flu, weather and inflation conspire to keep egg prices near historic highs for Easter	SRN News Reports: Egg prices are at near-historic highs in many parts of the world. One major culprit is avian flu. In 2022 alone, more than 131 million poultry worldwide died or were culled on farms affected by the disease. Higher chicken feed costs due to weather and inflation have also impacted egg prices. The high cost reflects a market scrambled by disease, high demand and growing costs for farmers. While global prices are lower than they were at this time last year, they remain elevated. A senior global specialist with a Dutch financial services firm doesn't expect them to return to 2021 levels.	03/26/24	4 minutes
Building strong father-son relationships	On today's broadcast of Focus On The Family, this father and son team describe the problem of disengaged dads — men who may be present physically but not emotionally with their families. Brian and Jeff Becker encourage dads and sons to be "tender lions" who will confront societal ills and yet remain tender and compassionate in their relationships. Jeff is a certified mental-peak performance coach. His company, Jeff Becker Mental Performance Coaching, and his reputation as a clinician are nationally known. Brian Becker is a consultant and executive leadership coach. His company, Leaders Edge, focuses primarily on helping nonprofit organizations develop transformative strategic plans leading to greater sustainability and high impact. Their book, Tender Lions: Building the Vital Relationship Between Father and Son, equips them well to inform and inspire audiences that it's never too late to improve that vital link between father and son.	03/28/24	28 minutes
