 Quarterly Issues/Programs List
 Fourth Quarter, 2020

ISSUES

KUUL-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Arts & Entertainment: Research shows that the availability of Arts and Culture – everything from museums to parks and recreation systems – can greatly improve the quality of life in a community.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Diversity & Racism: Minority communities that have long been impacted by persistent and underlying racism, prejudice and inequities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Economic Development: The overall health of our area is tied to its economic health. This health can only be maintained by sustaining the growth of local businesses.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Education: Providing educational opportunities for our area’s children – as well as secondary education for our adults – are important building blocks to continued quality of life in our community.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Environment: Our natural resources need to be protected for future generations: the price we pay for the “technology now” style of living we currently enjoy has ramifications – both now and for our descendants.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Food and Nutrition: We live in an age of plenty – for many Americans. But for others, “food deserts” are real. Additional emphasis is now being placed on proper nutrition from the foods we eat.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Healthcare Costs: Today’s healthcare may be state-of-the-art, but consumers are paying for it. With increased premiums and fewer insurers, for many Quad Citizens, getting sufficient healthcare coverage is difficult.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Immigration Issues: Newcomers to the United States settling in the Quad Cities area face many kinds of adjustments.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mental Health: As cutbacks have occurred in federal spending, perhaps no area has been hit harder than the funding of mental illness programs.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Religion: Understanding of and tolerance for those with different religious beliefs.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Senior Issues: From health to education to living conditions, senior needs are increasingly being accounted for – and marketed to.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tourism: Many cities in the Quad Cities two-state area rely on tourism revenues. The rich history of the region is a big reason people like to visit.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Veteran’s Issues/PTSD: Treatment of all military, including veterans from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, is an important issue to Quad Citizens because so many from our area have served. PTSD is a common affliction.
