Issue Addressed – UCAAN volunteer opportunists; road trip; cancer patients; treatments; preventative measures; fundrasing opportunists; etc.		United Cancer Advocacy Action Network (UCAAN) focuses on providing resources to cancer survivors upon diagnosis, or when survivors or their families contact us for information. Since we are a smaller local organization in Thousand Oaks, we are able to help survivors on a more personal level. UCAAN also provides gifts of hope to cancer survivors and their families which include handmade candle holders, plaques - in memory of and in support of, greeting cards & more! Long term goals include offering financial assistance to patients for the side effects caused by treatments: chiropractic care, dental care, gym memberships and other financial help. For more information go to UCAAN.org

Program Name/Segment - Issues & Programs: The Connect with Kasey KellyAnglers Anonymous of America Ventura Coast Chapter- Brian Barber Sr.	Date: September 23rd 2018 Time: 7am-8am Duration: 1 hour	Program Format/Content Description:
Issue Addressed –Veterans; community; healing; fishing; fundraising; volunteer opportunity, etc.		Anglers Anonymous Ventura Coast is a chapter of Anglers Anonymous of America. They are a nonprofit fishing organization located on the Ventura Coast of California. They exist to share the passion of fishing with veterans who may not otherwise be able to engage in this amazing activity. They love to fish and they love to share this lifestyle with others who can benefit from the relaxation of the open waters. Imagine providing that peace of mind to Veterans at no cost to them. They are an amazing non-profit helping build a network of veterans helping other veterans. For more information please visit www.anglersanonymousvc.weebly.com
