

PSA REPORTS OCTOBER

October 1-October 31, 2014

VETERANS DAY IN CARENCRO

The Carencro community will celebrate and honor the military veterans of our area in a program at the Carencro Community Center located at 5115 North University Ave. The event sponsored by the Carencro Business Association begins at 11 a.m. and includes patriotic music by the Carencro High School Band. A display of photographs and memorabilia will be provided by area veterans. The event organizers feel it is important to recognize military medal recipients.

Photos of active and veteran military members are being collected between September 1 and October 31 at Melancon Funeral Home Office (Chapel Location) at 4117 N. University Ave 337.896.8596. They will be displayed at the celebration program.

Memorabilia are being collected at the North Regional Library (5101 North University AVE) 337.896.6323. They will be displayed at the library and transported to the Veterans Day Celebration.

For additional information please call North Regional Library at 337.896.6323 or Lee Verret (planning committee chairman) at 337.456.6292. All of Acadiana is invited to attend this special celebration that will honor many men and women who are truly heroes to us and our country.

On a side note: The city of Carencro will be having a ribbon cutting on Tuesday, November 11th at 9:30 a.m. for the Carencro Veterans Memorial located in Downtown Carencro at 210 East St. Peter Street. For more information on that event, call 337-896-8481.

Southern Screen Film Festival

Nov 13-16 <http://southernscreen.org/>

Every November in Lafayette, Louisiana The Southern Screen Film Festival presents four days of film screenings, panels, red carpet events, parties, and workshops. Southern Screen moves beyond the traditional film festival and works to open up the community to the widespread possibilities of storytelling. The festival offers a hands-on experience, where the creativity in filmmaking mixes with a landscape of the local Louisiana culture to inspire and ignite the local community and visiting filmmakers.

Frank's International 3rd Annual Chili Cook-Off

November 7, 2014 from 11:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. at Cajun Field

On Friday, Nov. 7, Frank's International will host its third-annual Chili Cook-Off to benefit United Way of Acadiana. This year's Cook-Off will be held at Cajun Field to accommodate the larger crowds the event has drawn in recent years.

Approximately 85 teams will be producing unique chili dishes from ingredients both traditional and exotic. Prizes will be awarded for best chili in each category as well as for spirit and costumes. Last year the event raised more than $43,000 to create lasting, positive change through United Way of Acadiana.

The Cook-Off will run from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. The $5 entry fee allows each attendee to sample more than 85 different chilies created by the teams. Raffle tickets are $5 and can be purchased in advance at Pack & Paddle and United Way of Acadiana's office, as well as at the Chili Cook-Off. Winners will be announced at 12:45 p.m. during the cook-off and need not be present to win. For more information about registration or to purchase tickets for the event or the raffle, please call 337-233-0303.
