

C-4: (FCC Menu # 10) On February 25, 2012, the station participated in The Austin Independent School District and Con Mi Madre sponsored the annual conference for high school students, and was held at Austin High School in Austin, Texas. This event provided students local exposure to careers in fine arts and creative industries, including fine arts production, music production, film production, digital media and advertising and marketing. The conference allowed for several breakout sessions and keynote speakers. In attendance from Univision were Christie Humphries and Blanca Gaytan.

Dear Exhibitor:

On behalf of the students, parents and staff of Con Mi MADRE and the Hispanic Future's- a project of the Austin Independent School District, we would like to express our sincere gratitude to you for your participation in the Conference on the Fine Arts and Creative Industries.

We appreciate you giving so generously of your time to share information that will help our students better prepare for college and the future. The knowledge, encouragement and support you have demonstrated by your presence will have a positive impact on those who participated in the conference.

We hope the experience was rewarding for you as well. Thank you, again, for being a part of our students' educational journey and for making a difference in our community. We hope we can continue to count on your support!

Sincerely,

Sonia B. Castellanos, Program Director
Con Mi MADRE
