

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING COMMERCIAL LIMITS CERTIFICATION
2nd QUARTER, 2020

This is to certify that KHSL-TV, during the second quarter of 2020 aired the children's programs and series in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990, and with the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission. Those rules and regulations limit the total amount of commercial matter (including local ad avails and non-exempt program promotions) in programs produced and broadcast primarily for children 16 years of age and under to 10.5 minutes per hour or less on weekends, and 12 minutes per hour or less on weekdays.

During the quarter, KHSL-TV aired the CBS network programs shown on the attached document as they were received from the network, and did not insert any additional local commercial matter. During the quarter, there were no occasions on which the commercial limits were exceeded. Moreover, all children's program broadcast on KHSL-TV during the quarter also complied with the Commission's restrictions on the appearance of commercial internet web site addresses.
