

KEFN—Issues/Programs List THIRD QUARTER 2009

KEFN, licensed to Eternal Family Network, is the only over the air television station that offers full-time Catholic television programming. KEFN operates non-commercially. According to The Official Catholic Directory, 2006, as of January 1, 2006 there were 555,750 Catholic residents within the Archdiocese of St. Louis, which encompasses the city of St. Louis and the ten surrounding counties in east central Missouri (the total 2000 Census population of the civil jurisdictions within the Archdiocese was 2,118,721; Catholics made up 26.23% of this number).

Unique among St. Louis area television stations, KEFN views the world through the prism of Catholic theology, faith and morals. With this viewpoint, KEFN believes that five overarching “problems, issues and needs” of the St. Louis community are unchanging: (1) The Need to Save One’s Immortal Soul; (2) Faith, Morals and Character; (3) Problems in the Secular Society including but not limited to Divorce, Abortion, Euthanasia, Poverty and Crime; (4) Children’s Intellectual and Spiritual Development; and (5) General Public Affairs from a Catholic Perspective.

Ten Things You May Not Know about EWTN's Website

By Michelle Laque Johnson

As a "Wings" subscriber, you're probably more savvy than most about EWTN's website and the Internet in general. But the website is such a vast resource, we know there's a lot more to the site than most people realize. What follows are 10 things you may not know about our website. We hope they inspire you to do some exploring on your own – and to suggest this site as a resource to friends and family so they can take advantage of it too!

1. Most of you probably know that you can watch EWTN television or listen to EWTN radio online by going to the "Multimedia" button at the top of our home page and clicking on "Multimedia Home" at the top of the dropdown menu. However, did you ever stop to consider that this page showcases all eight of EWTN's television "feeds?" That means you can use the website to view what EWTN is showing anywhere in the world! How cool is that? Plus, if you've missed your favorite show for the week, all you have to do is scroll down that same page and click on the archived video. You can even download your favorite live show to your iPod or MP3 player from that page!

2. But what if you want to download not only our live shows, but programs such as EWTN's "Open Line" radio program, the daily homily, Bookmark, Vatican Insider, or any number of other great programs? Turn your car into a learning lab or start an adult education group by going to the "Libraries" tab at the top of the Home page and clicking on "Audio Library" in the drop down menu to find all of this and more. Did you know we also list special monthly podcasts on that page and you can sign up to be notified about them for free? This month we're featuring all 13 episodes of our series on the fabulous Cardinal John Henry Newman, who is scheduled to be beatified next year.
