

KEFN—Issues/Programs List FIRST QUARTER 2008

KEFN, licensed to Eternal Family Network, is the only over the air television station that offers full-time Catholic television programming. KEFN operates non-commercially. According to The Official Catholic Directory, 2006, as of January 1, 2006 there were 555,750 Catholic residents within the Archdiocese of St. Louis, which encompasses the city of St. Louis and the ten surrounding counties in east central Missouri (the total 2000 Census population of the civil jurisdictions within the Archdiocese was 2,118,721; Catholics made up 26.23% of this number).

Unique among St. Louis area television stations, KEFN views the world through the prism of Catholic theology, faith and morals. With this viewpoint, KEFN believes that five overarching “problems, issues and needs” of the St. Louis community are unchanging: (1) The Need to Save One’s Immortal Soul; (2) Faith, Morals and Character; (3) Problems in the Secular Society including but not limited to Divorce, Abortion, Euthanasia, Poverty and Crime; (4) Children’s Intellectual and Spiritual Development; and (5) General Public Affairs from a Catholic Perspective.

Coincidentally

Fr. George W. Rutler

Fr. George W. Rutler, pastor of Church of Our Saviour in Manhattan and EWTN series host, talks about "the phenomenon of coincidences, the things that happen every day that seem inexplicable." The difference between coincidence and providence, how much fun a knowledge of history can be, and how nothing in history is trivial, are all wrapped up in Fr. Rutler's new book, Coincidentally.

Joined on the set by Marcus Grodi, the two explore the relationship between God and science, delving into questions such as: Are science and religion mutually exclusive? Evolution or Creation? Can we explain the soul, or anything, in fact, which isn't matter?

The Science Before Science is available through EWTN's Religious Catalogue.
