

KEFN—Issues/Programs List FIRST QUARTER 2009

KEFN, licensed to Eternal Family Network, is the only over the air television station that offers full-time Catholic television programming. KEFN operates non-commercially. According to The Official Catholic Directory, 2006, as of January 1, 2006 there were 555,750 Catholic residents within the Archdiocese of St. Louis, which encompasses the city of St. Louis and the ten surrounding counties in east central Missouri (the total 2000 Census population of the civil jurisdictions within the Archdiocese was 2,118,721; Catholics made up 26.23% of this number).

Unique among St. Louis area television stations, KEFN views the world through the prism of Catholic theology, faith and morals. With this viewpoint, KEFN believes that five overarching “problems, issues and needs” of the St. Louis community are unchanging: (1) The Need to Save One’s Immortal Soul; (2) Faith, Morals and Character; (3) Problems in the Secular Society including but not limited to Divorce, Abortion, Euthanasia, Poverty and Crime; (4) Children’s Intellectual and Spiritual Development; and (5) General Public Affairs from a Catholic Perspective.

SUDAN: AND YOU DO NOT CRY WITH US 60 mins

Produced by Aid to the Church in Need, this video tells the historical story of Sudan and the relationship between Islam and Christianity all the way back to the 5th century. From the great persecution of the Church in the 13th century to the restoration of Catholicism in 1820, learn about this area and the ongoing war against Christians. Since 1958, the area has been under military rule with a formal re-education program to ensure Islam as the ruling religion and Arabic as the culture. Christians are now being sold for as little as fifteen U.S. dollars in the slave trade business that has since developed.
