

KEFN—Issues/Programs List THIRD QUARTER 2011

KEFN, licensed to Eternal Family Network, is the only over the air television station that offers full-time Catholic television programming. KEFN operates non-commercially. According to The Official Catholic Directory, 2006, as of January 1, 2006 there were 555,750 Catholic residents within the Archdiocese of St. Louis, which encompasses the city of St. Louis and the ten surrounding counties in east central Missouri (the total 2000 Census population of the civil jurisdictions within the Archdiocese was 2,118,721; Catholics made up 26.23% of this number).

Unique among St. Louis area television stations, KEFN views the world through the prism of Catholic theology, faith and morals. With this viewpoint, KEFN believes that five overarching “problems, issues and needs” of the St. Louis community are unchanging: (1) The Need to Save One’s Immortal Soul; (2) Faith, Morals and Character; (3) Problems in the Secular Society including but not limited to Divorce, Abortion, Euthanasia, Poverty and Crime; (4) Children’s Intellectual and Spiritual Development; and (5) General Public Affairs from a Catholic Perspective.

'Footsteps in the Wilderness:' Don't Miss the Incredible Story Behind EWTN's Documentary on the French Martyrs of North America – and a Special Offer!

By Michelle Laque Johnson

What would prompt a would-be Jesuit priest, who been rejected by the Order, to sail from France to Canada in the 1600s to volunteer at two Jesuit missions, one of which was under attack by the Iroquois Indians, the fiercest of the six Indian nations then populating North America? Why would a man who had been captured, tortured and held as a slave by the Iroquois teach the Sign of the Cross to a native boy when the penalty was certain death?

These are two of the many questions that prompted Fr. William Breault, who lives with the Sacramento Community dedicated to the French martyrs of North America, to research the story of René Goupil, the first of these martyrs. That book was one part of the inspiration behind Producer Jim Kelty's quest to film a documentary on this companion of St. Isaac Jogues.

However, Kelty says, "I didn't just go to make a movie about [Father Breault's] book, The Ghost in the Mohawk Valley. I made a movie about Father Breault's quest for René Goupil and what happened to him. It's a history mystery. René, [and Jogues] knew they were walking into the jaws.... Read More

WEEK OF JULY 7

Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings: A Catholic Worldview

Host Joseph Pearce wants you to know the truth about J.R.R. Tolkien, whose "Lord of the Rings" series has once again captured the imagination of the world. Pearce reveals how Tolkien was a proud Catholic who declared that his famous trilogy was "a fundamentally religious and Catholic work." Pearce explains that the ring is the emblem of sin, that carrying the ring is emblematic of carrying the cross, that the battle which takes place on March 25, is the date of the Crucifixion in European popular tradition as well as the Feast of the Annunciation; that destroying the ring which placed humanity under dominion of "the Shadow" is emblematic of Christ unmaking the consequences of Adam's fall – and much more!
