

KEFN—Issues/Programs List FIRST QUARTER 2011

KEFN, licensed to Eternal Family Network, is the only over the air television station that offers full-time Catholic television programming. KEFN operates non-commercially. According to The Official Catholic Directory, 2006, as of January 1, 2006 there were 555,750 Catholic residents within the Archdiocese of St. Louis, which encompasses the city of St. Louis and the ten surrounding counties in east central Missouri (the total 2000 Census population of the civil jurisdictions within the Archdiocese was 2,118,721; Catholics made up 26.23% of this number).

Unique among St. Louis area television stations, KEFN views the world through the prism of Catholic theology, faith and morals. With this viewpoint, KEFN believes that five overarching “problems, issues and needs” of the St. Louis community are unchanging: (1) The Need to Save One’s Immortal Soul; (2) Faith, Morals and Character; (3) Problems in the Secular Society including but not limited to Divorce, Abortion, Euthanasia, Poverty and Crime; (4) Children’s Intellectual and Spiritual Development; and (5) General Public Affairs from a Catholic Perspective.

NOTE: KEFN was silent in January and February, 2011 and returned to the air on March 8, 2011. The following descriptions cover the days that KEFN did operate during this quarter.

WEEKLY FEATURED PROGRAM

EWTN To Air "The Heroic Journey: The Life of Solanus Casey"

By Michelle Laque Johnson

His body was found to be incorrupt 30 years after his death and, during his life, hundreds of people reported miracles as a result of this humble Capuchin Frail's prayers. Yet the life of the Venerable Solanus Casey is a testament to the fact that God grants favors to those the world considers weak and lowly so that He may be glorified. Learn all about it, in the one-hour docu-drama, "The Heroic Journey: The Life of Solanus Casey," which airs at 10 p.m. ET, Wed., March 30, 1 p.m. ET, Fri., April 1, and 5 a.m. ET, Sat., April 2.

How weak was this saintly man? Well, to begin with, Solanus was sickly. The sixth of 16 children of Irish immigrants, Solanus suffered from diphtheria as a child and, as a result, had a high, squeaky, very weak voice for the rest of his life. That didn't prevent him from playing the violin and singing, which sent those around him running! Later, he would.... Read More

BOOKMARK

Fit for Eternal Life Kevin Vost

Most any workout book can help you bulk up or slim down, but only here will you find a truly Christian approach to physical fitness. As Catholic psychologist and veteran bodybuilder Kevin Vost reveals, God's command to "be perfect" applies not only to our moral life, but also to our bodies. Best of all: it doesn't take a lot of time, special knowledge, or fancy equipment to do it. The author explains the basic principles of strength and endurance training in a way you can understand (even if you haven't been in a gym for years — or ever).
