

KEFN—Issues/Programs List SECOND QUARTER 2007

KEFN, licensed to Eternal Family Network, is the only over the air television station that offers full-time Catholic television programming. KEFN operates non-commercially. According to The Official Catholic Directory, 2006, as of January 1, 2006 there were 555,750 Catholic residents within the Archdiocese of St. Louis, which encompasses the city of St. Louis and the ten surrounding counties in east central Missouri (the total 2000 Census population of the civil jurisdictions within the Archdiocese was 2,118,721; Catholics made up 26.23% of this number).

Unique among St. Louis area television stations, KEFN views the world through the prism of Catholic theology, faith and morals. With this viewpoint, KEFN believes that five overarching “problems, issues and needs” of the St. Louis community are unchanging: (1) The Need to Save One’s Immortal Soul; (2) Faith, Morals and Character; (3) Problems in the Secular Society including but not limited to Divorce, Abortion, Euthanasia, Poverty and Crime; (4) Children’s Intellectual and Spiritual Development; and (5) General Public Affairs from a Catholic Perspective.

EWTN BOOKMARK

Ben Wiker and Jonathan Witt have co-authored a book which explains reductionism, the mindset of materialism, the correct response to those who scoff at a Divine Author of the universe, and steps to take towards winning the culture back to a firmly grounded belief in God rather than chance. Wiker has succeeded, Bookmark host Doug Keck observes, in making the study of science as it relates to the genius of the Creator, both inviting and intelligible. Get a copy of A Meaningful World: How the Arts and Sciences Reveal the Genius of Nature, and the next time someone tosses a "That's the universe you live in, but that's not my universe" your way, you'll know what to say. A Meaningful World: How the Arts and Sciences Reveal the Genius of Nature is available from EWTN Religious Catalogue
