

KEFN—Issues/Programs List FOURTH QUARTER 2006

KEFN, licensed to Eternal Family Network, is the only over the air television station that offers full-time Catholic television programming. KEFN operates non-commercially. According to The Official Catholic Directory, 2006, as of January 1, 2006 there were 555,750 Catholic residents within the Archdiocese of St. Louis, which encompasses the city of St. Louis and the ten surrounding counties in east central Missouri (the total 2000 Census population of the civil jurisdictions within the Archdiocese was 2,118,721; Catholics made up 26.23% of this number).

Unique among St. Louis area television stations, KEFN views the world through the prism of Catholic theology, faith and morals. With this viewpoint, KEFN believes that five overarching “problems, issues and needs” of the St. Louis community are unchanging: (1) The Need to Save One’s Immortal Soul; (2) Faith, Morals and Character; (3) Problems in the Secular Society including but not limited to Divorce, Abortion, Euthanasia, Poverty and Crime; (4) Children’s Intellectual and Spiritual Development; and (5) General Public Affairs from a Catholic Perspective.

EWTN BOOKMARK more>

Joanna Bogle joins host Doug Keck on EWTN's Bookmark set this week to talk about two of her latest books, and two great men of the Church. Fr. Werenfried - a Life is a biography Joanna felt she had to write, after meeting with this compelling giant of a man, and founder of Aid to the Church in Need. Fr. Werenfried, Doug notes, was a larger-than-life figure behind the rebuilding of the Catholic Church in post-war Germany, and his story is captured here with verve, humor, and absolute realism. A gentle man, eminent theologian, and scholar par excellence is the subject of Joanna's second book, The Pope Benedict Code. She sets forth his writings to let Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger, now Benedict XVI, speak for himself; thus answering, Doug observes, the British press and other naysayers whose unfair treatment of this worthy successor to John Paul II prompted her work.

Father Galot explains the kingship of Christ in terms of His witness to the truth, as He declared to Pilate.

Father Edward McNamara - Substituting for the Creed

Father McNamara, professor of liturgy at the Regina Apostolorum Pontifical Athenaeum, answers questions of general interest on liturgical norms. Added this week is a question regarding substituting for the Creed. The Creed may be omitted from Mass only on special occasions, as the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday, when baptismal promises are renewed.

Father Dominic M. Garner, MFVA - Homily: Memorial of Our Lady of Divine Providence

Father Dominic gave the homily for the Mass of Our Lady of Divine Providence, 2 December 2006, at Our Lady of the Angels Monastery, Hanceville, Alabama. Father observed that, since it was the last day of the liturgical year, resolutions for the new year were in order, to further our spiritual growth.

Dr. José María Simón - The Physician's Relationship With Morality

Dr. José María Simón, President of World Federation of Catholic Medical Associations, addressed a letter to Catholic Physicians Worldwide, published by ZENIT, in which he outlined conflicts that have arisen in recent years between procedures made possible by scientific developments and the natural law. In his letter, the doctor surveys the moral problems connected with several of these procedures, including euthanasia, contraceptives, abortion, and artificial reproduction.

Giovanni Velocci - Marking the Birth of St. Alphonsus Ligouri: 20 November 1696

A summary of the impact St. Alphonsus had on Catholic moral theology, this article presents the Saint as shifting the emphasis from law to freedom, from holiness for the chosen few to a universal call to holiness.

Pope Benedict XVI - St. Paul's New Outlook

At the General Audience on 8 November 2006, the Holy Father continued his Reflection on St. Paul in his Catecheses series on the Apostles. There are two components to Paul's new relationship with Christ: being justified by grace through faith in Him, and identifying with Christ, to share His life and death.

Wolfgang Beinert - Fifteen Years of Pope Paul's Pontificate: In Light of His Mariology

An article from 1978 summarizes the direction of Paul VI's teaching on Mary, as a development of the perspective of the Second Vatican Council. In his Marialis Cultus, the Pope spoke of two ways of approach to Mariology, the via veritatis, examining the data of Scripture, history, and theology, and the via pulchritudinis, appreciating the beauty of her faith, maternal attitude, and service to God.

ZENIT - John XXIII, Minus the Myths

LOR - Biographies of New Blesseds

Between 1993 and 2004 John Paul II beatified 1,342 individuals from many countries, and new blesseds have been added since 2005 under Pope Benedict XVI. Each time L'Osservatore Romano publishes a short biography, we add it to our folder, which we have indexed by year and by name. New Blesseds added in November.
