

KEFN—Issues/Programs List FOURTH QUARTER 2009

KEFN, licensed to Eternal Family Network, is the only over the air television station that offers full-time Catholic television programming. KEFN operates non-commercially. According to The Official Catholic Directory, 2006, as of January 1, 2006 there were 555,750 Catholic residents within the Archdiocese of St. Louis, which encompasses the city of St. Louis and the ten surrounding counties in east central Missouri (the total 2000 Census population of the civil jurisdictions within the Archdiocese was 2,118,721; Catholics made up 26.23% of this number).

Unique among St. Louis area television stations, KEFN views the world through the prism of Catholic theology, faith and morals. With this viewpoint, KEFN believes that five overarching “problems, issues and needs” of the St. Louis community are unchanging: (1) The Need to Save One’s Immortal Soul; (2) Faith, Morals and Character; (3) Problems in the Secular Society including but not limited to Divorce, Abortion, Euthanasia, Poverty and Crime; (4) Children’s Intellectual and Spiritual Development; and (5) General Public Affairs from a Catholic Perspective.

BOOKMARK

DOES THE BIBLE REALLY SAY THAT?
Patrick Madrid

Being a good Catholic means more than warming a pew on Sundays. Author Pat Madrid tells Host Doug Keck on this week's "Bookmark," Pat's new book shows Catholics the need for generosity, mercy, and charity to those around us, as documented in the Scriptures and as reflected in the Church's teachings on such often misunderstood areas as assurance of salvation, divorce and remarriage, and the formation of conscience.
