

KEFN—Issues/Programs List SECOND QUARTER 2011

KEFN, licensed to Eternal Family Network, is the only over the air television station that offers full-time Catholic television programming. KEFN operates non-commercially. According to The Official Catholic Directory, 2006, as of January 1, 2006 there were 555,750 Catholic residents within the Archdiocese of St. Louis, which encompasses the city of St. Louis and the ten surrounding counties in east central Missouri (the total 2000 Census population of the civil jurisdictions within the Archdiocese was 2,118,721; Catholics made up 26.23% of this number).

Unique among St. Louis area television stations, KEFN views the world through the prism of Catholic theology, faith and morals. With this viewpoint, KEFN believes that five overarching “problems, issues and needs” of the St. Louis community are unchanging: (1) The Need to Save One’s Immortal Soul; (2) Faith, Morals and Character; (3) Problems in the Secular Society including but not limited to Divorce, Abortion, Euthanasia, Poverty and Crime; (4) Children’s Intellectual and Spiritual Development; and (5) General Public Affairs from a Catholic Perspective.

BOOKMARK

The Essential Belloc

Hilaire Belloc was a poet, polemicist, and prose stylist without peer, but above all, he was an entire generation's mighty champion for the Catholic Faith. This week, Host Doug Keck interviews the editors of this compilation of his thoughts on religion, politics, Western history, and culture.

Fr. C. John McCloskey, Scott Bloch and Brian

Robertson show us how Belloc's thoughts are perfect for Catholics struggling against secularism in today's society.
