

2018

First quarter report for the Federal Communications Commission
SUMMARIES FOR THE FIVE MINUTE WEEKLY PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAM ON “YOUR COMMUNITY”
PRE-RECORDED PROGRAMS BROADCAST
These shows air on indicated weekends they are called...

YOUR COMMUNITY

The Weekends Of.....

01/06/18- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews the spokeswoman for the Muscogee County School System Ms. Mercedes Parham. They discussed the upcoming Pre K program at the school system. How the positive effects and benefits that children receive from enrolling in the program are not only long lasting but character forming. They also gave the information that parents need to be able to connect with the program.

01/13/18- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews the spokeswoman for the Muscogee County School System Ms. Mercedes Parham. They discussed the upcoming Pre K program at the school system. How the positive effects and benefits that children receive from enrolling in the program are not only long lasting but character forming. They also gave the information that parents need to be able to connect with the program.(repeat)

01/20/18- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Detra Holloway with the Lupus Foundation. They talked about the 2018 “Walk To End Lupus”. This is their eight annual and will take place on May 19th in Columbus of which she is the chairperson of this event. They also discussed where the money they acquire goes too.

01/27/18- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Detra Holloway with the Lupus Foundation. They talked about the 2018 “Walk To End Lupus”. This is their eight annual and will take place on May 19th in Columbus of which she is the chairperson of this event. They also discussed where the money they acquire goes too.(repeat)

02/03/18- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Georgia State Patrol Trooper Donald Thomas. They talked about the state wide recruitment efforts of the Georgia State Patrol, the shortage of officers and the need to correct that. They discussed the pay, the education requirements, the physical and mental aspect of law enforcement.

02/10/18- - Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Georgia State Patrol Trooper Donald Thomas. They talked about the state wide recruitment efforts of the Georgia State Patrol, the shortage of officers and the need to correct that. They discussed the pay, the education requirements, the physical and mental aspect of law enforcement.(repeat)

02/17/18- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews James Jordan. Mr. Jordan is an employee of Synovus Bank and he also is a representative of ‘Operation Hope’. They talked about how Operation Hope gets people on their way to financial independence. They talked about budgeting, wise money handling decisions, home ownership, debt maintenance. They gave out contact information for those needing their services

02/24/18- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews James Jordan. Mr. Jordan is an employee of Synovus Bank and he also is a representative of ‘Operation Hope’. They talked about how Operation Hope gets people on their way to financial independence. They talked about budgeting, wise money handling decisions, home ownership, debt maintenance. They gave out contact information for those needing their services.(repeat)

03/03/18- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Susan Seely of the Open Door Community House. They talked about how the Open Door goes about their mission work which is providing opportunities for spiritual growth also establishing relationships with individuals and families in need and works in partnership with other service agencies to bring about reconciliation in the lives of people in the community

03/10/18- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Susan Seely of the Open Door Community House. They talked about how the Open Door goes about their mission work which is providing opportunities for spiritual growth also establishing relationships with individuals and families in need and works in partnership with other service agencies to bring about reconciliation in the lives of people in the community.(repeat)

03/17/18- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Frank Sheppard of Feeding The Valley organization. They discuss the need for this program, how it is set up, what it takes to operate. They also talked about the large network of partners they have both on the supply-side and the receiving end, and the many counties they serve.

03/24/18 Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Pam Kirkland of the Columbus Health Department. They discuss the upcoming “Drive Thru Rabies Clinic” that will take place in May at the Columbus Civic Center. It’s where people can pre-register their pet before hand and then the day of the event just drive up and get your pet vaccinated and you will receive the yearly city permit showing he has been vaccinated