

2017

Fourth quarter 2017 report for the Federal Communications Commission
SUMMARIES FOR THE FIVE MINUTE WEEKLY PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAM
“YOUR COMMUNITY”

These shows air on indicated weekends they are called...

YOUR COMMUNITY

The Weekends Of.....

10/07/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews the director of the Family Center of Columbus about their four departments. Big Brothers/Big Sister, Consumer credit counseling, Fast program and Family counseling. We talked about the impact these programs have on our community..

10/14/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Steven Wilson Of “Bikers Battlin’ Cancer” which is a group of motorcycle folks who are raising money for the Neighbors helping Neighbors program for the West Central Cancer Coalition by riding the perimeter of the United States of American, on motorbike.

10/21/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Rick Jones who happens to be the City Planning Director. They discussed the town hall meetings that were about to take place dealing with helping to make Columbus more beautiful and increasing our community’s quality of life.

10/28/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews James Jordan of Operation Hope. This organization deals with helping people that have fallen upon hard times with their credit, get restored and obtain financial help and a more workable credit rating.

11/04/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Ruthie Hite Director for Right From The Start which is an organization that helps build relationships by utilizing programs that deal with character building through events and activity for the entire family. She is the new Director and she laid out her vision for the company on the show.

11/11/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Columbus councilman Jerry “Pop” Barnes about the Veterans day observance that he helped organized and what it means to this community. Fort Benning is the number one military facility in America and Barnes put together a fitting tribute for our veterans that include speakers, parade and fellowship.

11/18/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Columbus councilman Jerry “Pop” Barnes about the Veterans day observance that he helped organized and what it means to this community. Fort Benning is the number one military facility in America and Barnes put together a fitting tribute for our veterans that include speakers, parade and fellowship. (repeat)

11/25/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Tiffany of the Ronald McDonald House Charities about the opening of its new area that has been set aside on the NICU floor of the Midtown Medical Center for people visiting their sick children while they are patients of that hospital and are staying at the Ronald McDonald House in Columbus. They talked about the benefits for parents to be close by their ill children.

12/02/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Captain Josh Hinton of the Salvation Army. They discussed the role of the “Red Kettles”, how it started its entire history and how it benefits our community. They mapped out the locations of the Kettles this year and how to volunteer to help the Salvation Army in its mission at this time of year.

12/09/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews D.J.Jones of “SportsVision”. D.J. and Dale Williams are both local former University of Georgia football players who also went to the National Football League. Since retiring they have put together different programs they’ve created to help and tutor college bound high school athletes to help with their transition from prep to college athletics.

12/16/17- Public affairs Director Al Haynes interviews Legena Arnold who is also a Pastor and they talked about her organization called “Saving House Inc.” which stands for “Sisters Achieving Victory In New Grounds Having Overcome Unusual Situations and Events. She also declared their motto is “Obstacles may change your direction but not your destination. They discussed the children and families that her organization has helped to success and that number is 25 families and growing. She also gave a method of operation description on how this work is done.