ISSUE	PROGRAM / TITLE	DESCRIPTION	GUEST	DATE/ TIME	DURA- TION

Hurricane Center Director Retiring	Sunday Outlook	Living in Florida, we have come to rely on the National Hurricane Center to warn us about storms headed our way. When Bill Read took over as the director of the National Hurricane Center (NHC) in 2008, he arrived at the Miami-based Center at a time when employee morale was at an all-time low and communication with other federal agencies had deteriorated to the point of ineffectiveness. Under his leadership, NHC has undergone significant management changes and restructuring. Read joins Sunday Outlook as he prepares to retire from the agency.	Bill Read Director National Hurricane Center	04/01/12	30 min
Child Safety Seats	Sunday Outlook	Motor vehicle crashes are the leading cause of death for children ages three to 14. Child safety seats reduce the risk of fatal injury by 71 percent for infants and by 54 percent for toddlers in passenger cars. Guest Kelly Powell discusses some of the common mistakes made when installing safety seats.	Kelly Powell Safe Kids Palm Beach West Palm Beach	04/08	30 min
SunUp\ARC: Joining Forces	Sunday Outlook	In what is a first for Indian River County, two nonprofits with similar missions have joined forces, creating a larger array of services and a more efficient use of donations. SunUp and Abilities Resource Center will now serve developmentally disabled children and adults.	Charles Bradley Executive Director Sun Up ARC	04/15	30 min

Protecting the Elderly	Sunday Outlook	As we live longer and longer, most of us will probably eventually reside in a long-term care facility. A dedicated army of volunteers with the Long-Term Care Ombudsmen Program helps to ensure the health, safety and welfare of residents of those facilities. During the past fiscal year, staff and volunteers investigated 7,534 complaints concerning residents living in nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and adult family-care homes.	Kevin McKeown Treasurer Coast District Manager Florida Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program	04/22	30 min
Adoption: In Search of a "Forever" Family	Sunday Outlook	For many people, Sunday is a family day. Perhaps it's the day when the family attends church together. . or maybe it's Sunday dinner with your extended family. How many of us take these things for granted? There are many kids who don't take these things for granted. . .because they don't have a forever family. Frank Avillo discusses the critical need for adoptive parents.	Frank Avilla Director of Adoption Services Children's Home Society	04/29	30 min
Services for the Developmentally Disabled	Sunday Outlook	So what do you do if you move to a new community and there are no services for your developmentally disabled son? If you are Mary Ellen Replogle, you go out and create them! Over 30 years ago, Mary Ellen and Dr. Harry Hurst began the Association for Retarded Citizens in Indian River County. Nearly 84, Mary Ellen is still making sure there are services available.	Mary Ellen Replogle Community Activist	05/06	30 min

Speaking Up for Children	Sunday Outlook	Guardians ad Litem are court-appointed volunteers who give a voice to abused, neglected and abandoned children. Everyone is focused on the "best interests of the child," but the child is not present during court proceedings. The program ensures that the judge hears from the child—through specially-trained volunteers.	Elizabeth McCormick Guardian ad Litem Program 19 th Judicial Circuit	05/13	30 min
The American Red Cross	Sunday Outlook	Whether it's introducing your child to water safety or watching a natural disaster unfold on television, the logo of the American Red Cross is always a familiar and comforting sight. Steve Lewis discusses programs and services provided by the agency.	Steve Lewis Regional Manager of Communications Treasure Coast and Palm Beaches	05/20	30 min
Mental Health Awareness Month	Sunday Outlook	One in four adults has a diagnosable mental health condition like depression, anxiety, posttraumatic stress or substance abuse. Some aspects of our culture are "toxic," and the health and lives of all Americans are at serious risk. Kris Sarkauskas and Dr. Erwin Ramos discuss the new Walk-In Clinic as well as the importance of Mental Health Awareness Month.	Kris Sarkauskas Chief Executive Officer Dr. Erwin Ramos Medical Director Mental Health Association Indian River County	05/27	30 min
Learning to Be Better Parents	Sunday Outlook	In the physical or emotional absence of a father, children are twice as likely to be involved in crime; 77% more at risk of physical abuse; five times more likely to live in poverty; and twice as likely to abuse drugs or alcohol. Father and Child Resource Center Director David Cardno discusses some of the outreach programs the Center offers. The Center is part of the Healthy Start initiative in Martin County.	Dave Cardno Director, Father and Child Resource Center Martin County	06/03	30 min

Setting Educational Standards	Sunday Outlook	Commissioner Gerard Robinson, who heads the Florida Department of Education, discusses the new Common Core State Standards initiative that will affect all students in the state. The initiative, which is being implemented nationwide, strives to set national standards to ensure all students have the skills and knowledge they will need to be successful. Thus far, 45 states and three territories have adopted the standards	Gerard Robinson Florida Commissioner of Education Tallahassee	06/10	30 min
Protecting the Elderly	Sunday Outlook	As we live longer and longer, most of us will probably eventually reside in a long-term care facility. A dedicated army of volunteers with the Long-Term Care Ombudsmen Program helps to ensure the health, safety and welfare of residents of those facilities. During the past fiscal year, staff and volunteers investigated 7,534 complaints concerning residents living in nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and adult family-care homes.	Kevin McKeown Treasure Coast District Manager Florida Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program	06/17	30 min
Aging Out of Foster Care	Sunday Outlook	While many of us are going about our daily lives, there is any army of professionals and volunteers working tirelessly to ensure the health and safety of the children and youths in our area. Hibiscus Center has developed a unique program to address the needs of youngsters in foster care who are nearing their 18 th birthdays.	Gary Petit Chief Operating Officer Hibiscus Center Stuart	06/24	30 min

Child Care	Clear Connection	Ms. Jackson promoted the high quality child care provided by the early learning coalition to families in need. It is also a clearing house to connect needy families with children to organizations that can help them with the care of their children. She encouraged young families to get in touch with the Early Learning Coalition and find out more about the early education options that are available to them, including the VPK program that is offered within the State of Florida.	Jackie Jackson, Executive Director Early Learning Coalition	5-5-12 to 5-11-12 5X/day	1:30 min each
Recreation Activities	Clear Connection	Dennis invited area residents to participate in the free National Learn to Row day on June 2nd , presented by the Indian River Rowing Club. Ages 14 and up are welcomed. The event takes place 8am to 1pm at the C-54 canal just a few miles north of Fellsmere on Babcock Road. You must be a good swimmer. It is a free event and a great way to get an introduction into the sport of rowing. He suggest participants bring water proof sandals, a bottle of water and snug fitting shorts. More information at the website indianriverrowingclub.com	Dennis Rings IRC Rowing Club	5-12-12 to 5-19-12 5X/day	1:30 min each

Support for non profits	Clear Connection	Ms Cerillo invited non profit organizations to submit their requests for funding from the 2012 Sebastian Clambake Lagoon Festival on November 2 - 4 in Sebastian's Riverview Park. The foundation funds new construction or capital improvements only. The non profit must be located between 77th Street near Wabasso and the Northern Indian River County line. The deadline to apply is June 6th. The organization is also looking for sponsors and vendors for this year's event. She invited all to visit the website at sebastianclambake.org. This is the clambake's 10th anniversary year.	Anajani Cerillo, Board Member Sebastian Clambake Foundation	5-20-12 to 5-25-12 5X/day	1:30 min each
The Environment	Clear Connection	Saturday June 9th is World's Oceans Day and the Smithsonian Museum in Fort Pierce will have a special event at the Fort Pierce Aquarium. There will be guided tours, hands on activities, touch tank and lagoon tours. Admission is $4 for adults and $3 for children. People across the world will celebrate World's Oceans Day and you are invited to learn all the Ocean provides to us local on the Treasure Coast. The first 100 kids in attendance will receive a free gift bag.	Sally Dillon Spokesperson	5-26-12 to 5-31-12 5X/day	1:30 min each

Benefit for local children's charities	Clear Connection	The tournament is being held at Capt Butchers Marina in Sebastian. The guaranteed purse is $14,000. Captains Party is on June 8th and the tournament is June 9th. Yellow Umbrella, Youth Guidance and Boys and Girls Club are just a few of the non profits supported by this fishing tournament. This event is presented by the Sebastian Exchange Club. It is an annual event of this club and their largest fundraiser of the year.	Michael Natalli, Chairman The Blue Water Open Fishing Tournament	6-1-12 to 6-6-12 5X/day	1:30 min each
Theatre Events	Clear Connection	Mr. Madden came to promote the show Hairspray and it will be presented at PSL High School by students from the St. Lucie County Schools. Performances are June 20 - 24th. It is a full stage presentation with a live orchestra. All performers and stage hands are St Lucie County School students. Tickets are just $15. There are matinee and evening performances. Listeners were given the number above for more information and to reserve tickets for the summer production of Hairspray, The Musical.	Patrick Madden, Director of the Summer Musical St Lucie County School Board	6-7-12 to 6-13-12 5X/day	1:30 min each

Blood Donations	Clear Connection	Mr. Thompson came on to encourage listeners to donate blood. He pointed out there is no synthetic substitute and the need is constant. One pint save an average of three lives. He pointed out that 90% of the population will need donated blood in their lifetime. 20% of all blood donated goes to cancer patients. It takes about 7 to 10 minutes to donate blood. He suggests you come in well hydrated and eat a good meal. Blood banks frequently run low on type 0 and type b blood. Medical care depends on a steady stream of healthy donors.	Larry Thompson, Marketing Director Indian River Blood Bank	6-14-12 to 6-21-12 5X/day	1:30 min each
Youth Rec Programs	Clear Connection	Ms Burnes invited children from throughout the Treasure Coast to come register for soccer. They provide programs for girls and boys age 4 - 19. They receive their uniform, shirt and socks with their registration of $60. It is a non profit organization. There is a website for all the pertinent information. Sebastian soccer.com. She tells us that soccer is a great way for children to experience physical, mental and emotional growth...plus physical activity is the best way to maintain a healthy body weight.	Amanda Burnes Sebastian Soccer Association	6-22-12 to 6-29-12 5X/day	1:30 min each
