

Issues/Programs List for KVRX-FM for fourth quarter of 2022

Issue 1: Sports

Title: Oddball Out

Date/Time/Duration: 10-Oct-22 / 7:00am / 60 min.

A look at the history of baseball includes the Knickerbocker Rules (and their effects on bunting and stolen bases) and the origin of the curveball.

Issue 2: Film

Title: Mad, Bad, and Sad: A Guide To Female Horror

Date/Time/Duration: 14-Oct-22 / 8:00pm / 60 min.

Two texts (Radicalizing Her: Why Women Choose Violence by Nimmi Gowrinathan and Self Defense: A Philosophy of Violence by Elsa Dorlin) are drawn upon to consider the “bad” woman archetype as embodied by Mallory Knox in Natural Born Killers.

Issue 3: Education

Title: Bachelor’s Degree In Unemployment

Date/Time/Duration: 31-Oct-22 / 7:00pm / 60 min.

A music performance major and a mathematics major talk about their fields of study and explain why they chose to study those subjects.

Issue 4: Relationships

Title: Double Tap Radio

Date/Time/Duration: 2-Nov-22 / 9:00pm / 60 min.

A discussion of dating apps includes personal experiences plus expert opinions on how to safely navigate online dating.

Issue 5: Philosophy

Title: Philosophy, We Think?

Date/Time/Duration: 9-Oct-22 / 1:00am / 60 min.

As an introduction to philosophy, three works are discussed: “What is Philosophy?” by Elliott Sober, “The Problems of Philosophy” by Bertrand Russell, and “Risky Inquiry” by Rima Basu.