06/20/04      "Bill Clinton" - an interview William Jefferson Clinton, the 42nd president of the United States, about his public and private life - soon to be revealed in his upcoming memoir, "My Life." He discusses his Arkansas childhood and family; his terms as Arkansas governor; and the triumphs and failures of his presidency. Clinton says that he is proud that he fought the impeachment battle that failed to drive him from office. He views his economic plan as the greatest accomplishment of his presidency, and counts among his best efforts the help he gave to the people of Kosovo to rid themselves of the dictator Slobodan Milosevic. The failure high on list of regrets is the affair with White House intern Monica Lewinsky. The interview took place in Clinton's home in Chappaqua, New York, and in Arkansas in Clinton's childhood home in Hope, the state capitol in Little Rock, and in Hot Springs where he grew up. He spoke about the issues of his presidency, including the war on terror and Osama bin Laden and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, regretting his failure to convince Yasir Arafat to accept a proposal he felt could achieve a peaceful settlement. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)

06/23/04      "Life Support?" - A 1990 Supreme Court decision mandated that doctors must do everything to keep a patient alive, unless that patient has given proof that he doesn't want the treatment. 06/09/04      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Tacoma Confidential" - a report on corruption and a cover-up by city officials of Tacoma, Washington, focusing on David Brame, the city's police chief who rose to power despite a shady past. In February 2003, after 11 years of marriage, Brame's wife Crystal filed for a divorce. In April, John Hathaway, a man with an Internet site called The New Takhoman, anonymously received the Brame divorce papers, which contained details about the couple's marriage, including allegations of sexual demands, abuse and death threats. Hathaway published the information, titled "Tacoma Confidential," on his website. The story then made the headlines in local papers. The following day, David shot Crystal in the head and turned the gun on himself. He died almost immediately, while Crystal lingered for a week. There are three separate investigations into the Brame murder-suicide, including an FBI inquiry to determine whether any one should face criminal charges. Crystal's parents are preparing to file a multimillion-dollar lawsuit against the city of Tacoma. Segments include: "Out Of The Blue"; "Breaking Away"; "Chief Allegations"; "Cover-up"; "Starting Over" (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Paul LaRosa) (OAD: 09/27/03)

- 06/16/04      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Canal Street Brothel" - focuses on three generations of women from the same family who all worked in the New Orleans-based Canal Street Brothel -- Tommie Taylor, the grandmother who worked the phones; her daughter, Jeanette Maier, the madam; and the granddaughter, Monica Montemayor, the working girl. The FBI, suspecting that the brothel, part of a nationwide ring, had organized crime connections, shut it down in 2002 after recording 5,000 calls during an investigation involving 10 FBI agents in the days before, during and after 9/11. No evidence of a criminal connection was found, but more than a dozen women were arrested including the three women who ran the Canal Street Brothel. None of the "johns" who patronized the brothel were exposed or arrested. Monica Montemayor, managed to stay out of jail but is fighting to regain custody of her young daughter. Segments include: "Hot n' Spicy"; "The Big Uneasy"; "Like Mother Like Daughter"; "Risky Business"; "An Open Book?". (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux, Judy Tygard, Tamara Weitzman) (OAD: 06/04/03)
- 06/18/04      48 HOURS INVESTIGATES: "Twist Of Fate" - a report on Adriana Scott of Long Island, N.Y. and Tamara Rabi of New York City, identical twins born in Guadalajara, Mexico, raised in different homes, and reunited by chance twenty years later. Curious to learn why the girls were separated at birth, Adriana, Tamara and their adoptive mothers traveled to Guadalajara in search of the twins' birth mother, Norma De La Cruz. De La Cruz claims that she was coerced into giving up the twins and did not want them to be raised separately. Includes an interview with Nancy Segal, a researcher who has interviewed 50 sets of identical twins who were separated at birth. Also included are interviews with four sets of twins -- Tom Patterson and Steve Tazumi, Daphne Goodship and Barbara Herbert, Debbie Mehlman and Sharon Poset, and Roger Brooks and Tony Milasi -- identical twins separated at birth, adopted and raised by different kinds of families. Segments include: "One And Only"; "First Love"; "Mirror Image"; "High Anxiety"; "Hard Truths"; "Destiny's Children" (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Patti Aronofsky) (Sr. P.: "Twist Of Fate" Katie Boyle) (OAD: 11/15/03)
- 06/23/04      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Law And Mrs. Shelton" - a report on Catherine Mehaffey Shelton, a criminal defense attorney from Dallas. She has been practicing law in Texas for nearly three decades and making headlines for nearly as long, primarily because strange things happen to the men in her life. In the late 1970s, one of Shelton's boyfriends was found beaten to death, while another ex-boyfriend's apartment came down. Shelton denies having anything to do with these crimes and she has never been charged. A more recent case involved the murder of a man named Michael Hierro, who was married to one of Shelton's former employees, Marisa Hierro. Shelton's husband, Clint, was convicted of Hierro's murder and is serving a life sentence. Hierro's widow claimed that Shelton was also involved. Shelton successfully sued Marisa for libel. A judge awarded her $5 million in damages and ruled that, based upon the evidence presented, Catherine Mehaffey Shelton is innocent of the allegations of murder and assault. Segments include: "The Law & Mrs. Shelton"; "Bad Blood"; "Unforgettable"; "Calling The Shots"; "Advantage Mrs. Shelton"; "... In Her Own Defense" (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman) (OAD: 10/29/03)

- 06/25/04      48 HOURS INVESTIGATES: "Web Of Seduction" - report on problems which arise when children under the age of 17 receive unwanted sexual letters on the Internet, focusing on Lindsay, a 14-year-old suburban Florida girl who began receiving explicit love letters from a stranger in Greece. Despite the efforts of her mother, Stephanie Lavoie, Lindsay continued her online relationship and finally disappeared from her home. Through the efforts of Sgt. Gary Klinger of the Polk County Sheriff Department's Missing Persons unit, the stranger was identified as Franz Konstantin Baehring, a German national involved in pornography and prostitution, who lured the girl to Greece with the help of accomplices. Baehring is behind bars on charges of child abduction and exploitation. Stephanie Lavoie and her Congressman, Rep. Adam Putnam, have drafted a bill nicknamed "Lindsay's Law" to make it harder for minors to leave the country without an adult. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer. P: Josh Yager) (OAD: 01/04/02)
- 06/30/04      48 HOURS INVESTIGATES: "The Other Woman" - Dr. David Stephens was a prominent surgeon at Forrest General Hospital in Hattiesburg, Miss. Stephens, married for 34 years and the father of two adult children, was having an affair with Stephanie Steven, a nurse with whom he worked. Learning of her husband's infidelity, the doctor's wife Karen ran out of her home, pointed a gun into her mouth, and accidentally tripped, setting the gun off. She died three months later and her death was ruled suicide. Stephens married Stephanie and shortly after became seriously ill, suffering from liver failure, hepatitis C and diabetes. Stephanie said that her husband became depressed as his health declined and on May 1, 2001, she said she woke to find him lying dead next to her. Despite her claim that she had nothing to do with Dr. Stephens' death, authorities were suspicious. An autopsy revealed the presence in Stephens' blood of the drug Atricurium, a muscle relaxer used in surgery. Stephanie was tried and found guilty of murder and will serve at least 30 years in prison. She is trying for an appeal. Segment titles: "Voices From The Past"; "Talk Of The Town"; "Body Of Evidence"; "No Doubt?"; "Shockwave" (C: Harold Dow - P: Josh Yager, Susan Mallie) (Sr. P.: "The Other Woman" Peter Schweitzer) (OAD: 01/07/04)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

06/27/04 "Help Them Learn, Help Them Grow: A Faith Response to Children Left Behind": an interfaith religion special focusing on programs set up by faith-based groups in the Chicago area to help inner-city public school children, many of whom are just learning English and many from one-caregiver homes. Includes visits to the Fourth Presbyterian Church on Chicago's Gold Coast and the church's Chicago Lights program; San Miguel School, a middle school founded on the south side of Chicago by the Christian Brothers; the Muslim Community Center Full-Time School which works with developmentally disabled students at the public school next door; and The Rev. Dr. Homer Ashby, professor of Pastoral Care at McCormick Seminary who talks about why he has chosen to tutor a young woman from a school which passed her on to high school without acquiring the necessary basic skills. (Executive Producer/Director: John P. Blessington - Producer/Narrator: Ted Holmes)
