Voting/Election Reform

PBS Newshour #13199

PBS

Monday, April 5, 6:00 – 7:00 PM

NPR's Tamara Keith and Amy Walter of the Cook Political Report join Judy Woodruff to discuss the latest political news, including Georgia's new voting law, the resulting corporate fallout, and what President Joe Biden and former president Donald Trump's 2020 campaign donation refunds say about U.S. election fundraising laws.

PBS Newshour #13200

PBS

Tuesday, April 6, 6:00 – 7:00 PM

Georgia's recent voting law instating new ID rules for mail-in ballots has led 72 Black CEOs to write a full-page ad in The New York Times urging corporate executives to oppose the law. One of the signers of that letter, Roger Ferguson, CEO of TIAA and former vice chair of the federal reserve, joins Judy Woodruff tonight to discuss the law.

Washington Week #6041

PBS

Sunday, April 11, 8:00 – 8:30 AM

The battle over voting rights continues as big businesses criticize Georgia's new voting laws. The panel discussed House Democrats' voting rights bill H.R.1 and a new tape shedding light on dark money. Amy Walter of The Cook Political Report guest moderates.

PBS Newshour #13220

PBS

Tuesday, May 4, 6:00 – 7:00 PM

There is a growing fight over voting access in the U.S. and Georgia is at the center of the conflict, with Democrat Stacey Abrams as a driving force behind change in the state. On Tuesday, Abrams was honored at the National Democratic Institute's Madeleine K. Albright Celebration for Women's Risk-Takers. She spoke to Amna Nawaz about the challenges of maintaining a healthy democracy.

Healthcare

Critical Care: America vs. the World

PBS

Wednesday, April 21, 10:00 – 11:00 PM

PBS Newshour examines the highs and lows of America's health care system, and travel to four other nations to see how they provide health coverage affordably and thoroughly, even in the face of the pandemic.

PBS Newshour Weekend #1486

PBS

Sunday, April 25, 6:00 – 6:30 PM

After more than a year of pandemic lockdown, the tourism industry is preparing for millions of newly vaccinated Americans to catch travel fever. That is a business opportunity for a third-generation Georgia restaurateur whose family name was once synonymous with the great American road trip. From Georgia Public Broadcasting, Rickey Bevington reports on the revival of Stuckey's.

Frontline #3912/3913

PBS

"The Virus that Shook the World Pt 1 and 2"

Monday, April 26 at 9:00 PM and Tuesday, April 27 at 10:00 PM

Living the year of the pandemic, filmed around the world, from lockdowns to funerals to protests. Using extensive personal video and local footage, how people and countries responded to the virus, across cultures, race, faith, and privilege.

A Seat at the Table #310 "COVID-19 and the Vaccine"

Local

Sunday, May 9, 2021, 8:00 – 9:00 AM

On this episode of A Seat at the Table, Dr. Valerie Montgomery Rice joins us to talk about vaccine hesitancy and what Morehouse School of Medicine is doing to combat it. COVID-19 survivor Gail Brooks also joins the panel to share her experience with the virus and how it pushed her to become a health equity advocate. Plus, we bust some of the most common myths about COVID and vaccination.

Economy

PBS Newshour #13202

PBS

Friday, April 2, 6:00 – 7:00 PM

The U.S. Labor Department reported Friday a net gain of 916,000 jobs last month, the most since August, while the unemployment rate fell to 6 percent. The upbeat jobs report seems to confirm some economists' forecasts that the economy is on its way to recovery.

PBS Newshour #13201

PBS

Wednesday, April 7, 6:00 – 7:00 PM

President Biden's $2.3 trillion infrastructure plan would prioritize transportation, drinking water and broadband projects, among others. It comes after the American Society of Civil Engineers released its 2021 report card, giving the U.S. infrastructure a C-minus. Emily Feenstra, ASCE's managing director of government relations and infrastructure initiatives, joins William Brangham to discuss.

PBS Newshour #13204

PBS

Monday, April 12, 6:00 – 7:00 PM
