

WLVB-FM PROGRAMS/ISSUES LIST

Apr.-June, 2021

The following are the issues emphasized during the second quarter, 2018 programming on WLVB-FM.

1. OLD FARMER'S ALMANACE "GARDEN GUIDE"

Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie talked "live" on April 14, 2021 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Sarah Perrault, senior editor of the "OLD FARMER'S ALMANAC" about the new "GARDEN GUIDE" now available at newsstands and book stores. The guide helps guide gardeners with planting advice, solutions to gardening problems, explores new gardening techniques and other topical and interesting articles.

2. LAMOILLE RESTORATIVE CENTER

Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie talked "live" on April 15, 2021 (8:20 AM-8:25 AM) with Heather Hobart, executive director of the Lamoille Restorative Center about its mission statement, programs and information services and upcoming volunteer training program LRC relies on approximately 45 volunteer restorative justice practitioners in its work with program participants.

3. LAMOILLE AREA CANCER NETWORK

Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie talked "live" on June 18 2021 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Kathy Demar and Jill Baker of the LAMOILLE AREA CANCER NETWORK about the "alternate" LACING UP FOR CANCER event. Teams are asked to sell luminaries for the September 11th "LUMINARIA" event from 6-9 PM. Fundraising events will also include a coin drop, jewelry sale, raffle and other activities to benefit the LAMOILLE AREA CANCER NETWORK. All monies raised remain in the community through block grants.

4. NOON MUSIC IN MAY SERIES/Stowe Performing Artsw

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" on April 26, 2021 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Lynn Paparella, executive director of "Stowe Performing Arts" about the upcoming "NOON MUSIC IN MAY" series that is hosted weekly through the month of May by the Stowe Community Church.

5. HYDE PARK ENERGY COMMITTEE/"LOVE YOUR LAWN"

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" on June 10, 2021 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Elisa Clancy and Meg Taylor of the Hyde Park Energy Committee about "LOVE YOUR LAWN CAMPAIGN", how town and village residents can partipate, benefits of "MOW ELECTRIC" program, working with schools on "RAISE THE BLADE" campaign and the creation of the wildflower meadow at Elsa French Park.