

WLVB-FM PROGRAMS/ISSUES LIST

Oct-Dec., 2022

The following are the issues emphasized during the fourth quarter, 2022 programming on WLVB-FM.

*****

1. JENNA'S PROMISE/SILENT AUCTION FUNDRAISER:

Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie spoke in studio on November 15 (7:20-7:25 AM) with Amie Tatro (co-founder) and Olivia McGovern (Marketing) of Jenna's Promise about the organization's mission statement of assisting those battling "drug use disorder", other fund-raising subsidiaries (Jenna's Goods, Jenna's Cafe) and the upcoming "Silent/"Live" Auction event on November 19th featuring community-donated auction items.

2. LAMOILLE HEALTH PARTNERS INTERVIEW SERIES

WLVB'S Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie hosted an interview series (8:20 AM) introducing the newest members of the medical staff at Lamoille Health Partners serving the Lamoille Valley. Each interviewee gave an overview of their past medical positions and their visions of serving the community with LHP.

11/16: Steacy Suddaby, (FNP), and Teia Foti (FNP)

11/30 : Sarah Vrenendburgh (PA-C), and Kassandra Verhusen (FNP)

12/7: Dana Kennedy (MD), and Tusa Van Vogelpoel (MD)

3. LAMOILLE HEALTH EQUITY GRANT/VT. DEPT. OF HEALTH

WLVB'S Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie spoke in studio on October 21, 2022 8:20-8:25 AM with Greg Stefanski of the Vermont Dept. Of Health about the Lamoille Health Equity Grant. The discussion encompassed the definition of "health equity", why health equity is important in Lamoille County, the definition and importance of the Equity Grant and how community members could get involved by sharing health care personal stories and proposing a project to address health equity issues in Lamoille County.

4. HEALTHY LAMOILLE VALLEY/FALL COALITION MEETING

WLVB'S Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie spoke on October 12, 2022 from 8:20-8:25 AM with Jessica Bickford of "Healthy Lamoille Valley" about the upcoming "Fall Coalition Meeting" on October 20 at River Arts Center in Morrisville. Jessica spoke about the organization's mission statement, its health-related coalition members in the Lamoille Valley, and the purpose of the fall meeting. The event theme was supporting youth, families and community members making healthy decisions.

5 NORTH COUNTRY ANIMAL LEAGUE

WLVB'S Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie spoke on November 15 from 9:05-9:15 AM with Bonnie Hollis marketing director of the North Country Animal League about their "Pets of the Week" eligible for adoption, the adoption process, the NCAL "Meals Program" for animals housed at NCAL, and the need for donations and volunteer service in support of NCAL.

6. LOST NATION THEATRE/"SIDE BY SIDE BY SONDHEIM"

WLVB'S Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" on October 6, 2022 from 8:20-8:25 AM with Lost Nation Theatre creative director Kathleen Keenan and local musician Taryn Noelle about the upcoming production "SIDE BY SIDE BY SONDHEIM." The discussion included a synopsis of the production, the exceptional talents of Steven Sondheim and rundown of the LNT cast for the show.