

WLVB-FM PROGRAMS/ISSUES LIST

Apr.-June, 2020

The following are the issues emphasized during the second quarter, 2020 programming on WLVB-FM.

1. MAY/MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH

WLVB aired a morning interview series promoting "May Mental Health Awareness Month" "Vermont Country Morning" Host Roland Lajoie conducted the following interviews with members of Lamoille County Mental Health Services:

5/1/20, 8:20-8:25 AM: CEO Savi Van Sluytman talked about Mental Health Awareness month, and have an update on what's happening at LCMHS.

5/8/20, 8:20-8:25 AM: Miranda Young and Alana May spoke about Children, Youth & Family services department, resource parent curriculum and trauma informed tips.

5/15/20, 8:20-8:25 AM: Katy Kutcha and Janelle Germaine from the Development Services spoke about "Intervention Venue for Youth Program."

5/22/20, 8:20-8:25 AM: Monique Reil from the "Mobile Crisis Team" spoke about "Zero Suicide" initiative.

2. Lamoille Restorative Center

Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie talked "live" in studio on April 11, 2021 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Heather Hobart, executive director of Lamoille Restorative Center in Hyde Park about the upcoming screening of "Coming Home", a film about people returning to their community after spending time in prison.

3. Vt. Musicians' Concert (United Community Church)

Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie talked "live" in studio on April 1, 2021 (8:20 AM-8:25 AM) with Mary Ann Wilson, parishioner of the United Community Church of Morrisville about the upcoming "Vt. Musicians' Concert" which benefits the mission to serve and support the children, youth and families of the greater Morrystown community.

4. LOCAL BOOK LAUNCH

Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie talked "live" in studio on May 14 2020 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Monica Morrissey, author of the book "Dimes From Heaven." spoke about her writing debut. The book expresses an inspiring spiritual story of the token that crossed her path in the wake of her parents' deaths and the healing she found as she experienced these "winks from God" and embraced her life.

5. VSAC

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" in studio on June 6, 2020 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Marilyn Cargill, marketing director of Vermont Student Assistance Association spoke about the best student loan plan, federal loans available, how VSAC loans compare with other financial institutions and the best way for families to help if they get stuck in the student financial aid process.

5. 4th Annual Opioid Forum

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" in studio on June 21, 2020 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Lamoille County Sheriff Roger Marcoux and Greg Tatro (father of daughter Jenna who died of an opioid overdose) spoke about the upcoming "4th Annual Opioid Forum" at the Green Mountain Tech Center on June 25th. The forum included an address by Tatro (and wife Dawn) in which they shared their daughter six-year struggle with substance disorder, and a question and answer session with Ed Baker, Substance Use Disorder expert.