

WLVB-FM PROGRAMS/ISSUES LIST

Jan.-Mar., 2020

The following are the issues emphasized during the first quarter, (January-March) 2019 programming on WLVB-FM.

1. 2020 Vermont Farm Show Preview

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" in studio on January 20, 2020 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Jackie Folsom, president of the Vermont Farm Show about the January 29-31 event. The show includes agriculture exhibitors, demonstrations, educational booths, consumer night events, group annual business meetings, a 2018 "Buy Local Market and local product judging.

2. NCVRC/Copley Hospital-"Recovery Coaches" Program

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" in studio on February 21, 2020 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Michael Brigati, director of Emergency Services at Copley Hospital, and Daniel Franklin, assistant director of North Central Vermont Recovery Center, about their collaborative program to meet with people who have expressed interest in seeking treatment for addiction at NCVRC while receiving medical treatment at Copley Hospital. "Recovery Coaching" is also available to family members or loved one affected by someone else's substance abuse.

3. Lamoille Neighbors

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" in studio on February 4, 2020 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Gloria Wing and Joan Greene of the Lamoille County Civic Center about the newly formed "Lamoille Neighbors" program, a grassroots, non-profit membership organization made up of members who help each other access the services they need to stay independent and connected to the community. For example, the organization is able to connect a member to a vetted volunteer who can provide transportation, light home maintenance, technology assistance, friendly visits, meals when ill and other vital services.

4. Lamoille Restorative Center

"Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" in studio on February 8, 2020 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Heather Hobart, executive director of the Lamoille Restorative Center in Hyde Park about upcoming events, including the 40th Anniversary celebration of Vermont's Court Diversion Program, and co-hosting the showing and discussion of film "Coming Home", a film about people returning to their community after spending time in prison

5. Healthy Lamoille County: "Bullying: A Family Discussion"

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" in studio on January 14, 2020 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Jessica Bickford, executive director of "Healthy Lamoille County" about the upcoming public event "Bullying: A Family Discussion." Bullying impacts children, schools and communities and the discussion is meant to reduce the number of bullying incidents and helping to keep kids safe. The discussion included a panel of local officials from Lamoille County Mental Health, Lamoille Restorative Center and local schools.

6. Morrisville American Red Cross Blood Drive Campaign:

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie broadcast "live" from the American Red Cross blood drive site in Morrisville on January 11, 2020 from Noon-3:00 PM reporting on donor number updates and talking with some members of the Red Cross Blood Drive team during the January campaign (sponsored by 17 local businesses). The Morrisville blood drive brought in 85 donors.