

WLVB-FM PROGRAMS/ISSUES LIST

Apr.-June, 2022

The following are the issues emphasized during the second quarter, 2022 programming on WLVB-FM.

1. LAMOILLE AREA CANCER NETWORK (20TH LACING UP FOR CANCER)

Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie conducted a series of interviews previewing the June 25th "2022 LACING UP FOR CANCER" event to benefit the Lamoille Area Cancer Network that benefits the Lamoille Valley community in its treatment of local cancer victims and their families. Money is raised through volunteer "walking teams" and local corporate sponsors. This year's event raised over $150,000 towards this cause. Funds are distributed through grants to those cancer victims in financial hardship to purchase groceries, medicines, pay family bills.

6/1/22, 6/22/22 9:05 AM: Guests were Kathy Demars (LACING UP FOR CANCER Director) and Jill Baker (LACN Board Member).

6/15, 9:05 AM: Guests were Erica Scott and Carla Alexander (LACN Board Members)

2. CELEBRITY STORYTELLERS (VT. CHILDRENS & FAMILY SERVICES)

Vermont Country Morning Host Roland Lajoie spoke with Mary Collins (Shine Communications) on May 2, 2022 about the month of May "CELEBRITY STORYTELLERS" Series. The series, in which "Vermont personalities" conduct book readings at libraries, public locations or via ZOOM, celebrates children and families while promoting the work of the Vermont Department of Children & Family Service through the assistance of the Vermont Libraries Association. Events are scheduled throughout the month of May and various portions of the state of Vermont.

3. LAMOILLE RESTORATIVE CENTER

Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie spoke with Heather Hobart, executive director of Lamoille Restorative Center, and Vermont State Representative Kate Donnally about Act 104, which requires the courts to consider a person's children when they are sentenced to incarceration. Donnally helped write and pass the bill into law. Hobart also spoke about the mission statement of the LRC and the services it provides to the Lamoille Valley community.

4. LAMOILLE COUNTY MENTAL HEALTH SVC (MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH)

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie conducted a series of interviews with staff of Lamoille County Mental Health Services observing "May-Mental Health Awareness Month" and talking about its many services offered to the community.

5/3/22...8:20 AM: Katina Idol, School Based Clinician Director, spoke about Children, Youth & Family Services.

5/10/22...8:20 AM: Sherry Marcelino, Community Support Manager, spoke about Adult Behavioral Health.

5/17/22...8:20 AM: Monique Reil, Mobile Crisis Team and ASAP Manager, spoke about Emergency Services.

5/24/22...8:20 AM: Amy Fitzgerald, Director of Human Resources & Compliance, spoke about Human Resources.

5/31/22...8:20 AM: Chris Younce, Augmentative & Alternative Communication Coordinator, spoke about Developmental Services.

5. "MEETING HOUSE ON THE GREEN MUSIC SERIES"

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" on June 7, 2022 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Tyrone Shaw, marketing/publicity director of the "Meeting House on the Green" Music Series in East Fairfield about the upcoming summer-fall concert schedule/events that benefits the Meeting House and its 10-year renovation/improvement project.

5. "JENNA'S PROMISE" (COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS)

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" on June 21, 2022 with Gregory Tatro, co-founder of "Jenna's Promise", about the non-profit organization mission statement of providing resources for those in drug addiction recovery, and its inaugural "Community Conversation" speaker series featuring public officials and political candidates and their stands of issues affecting Vermonters, especially in Lamoille County.