

WLVB-FM PROGRAMS/ISSUES LIST

April-June, 2023

The following are the issues emphasized during the second quarter, 2023 programming on WLVB-FM.

*****

1. LANPHER MEMORIAL LIBRARY, HYDE PARK

Vermont Country Morning Host Roland Lajoie spoke with Amy Olsen, director of Librarian Services at Lanpher Memorial Library on June 26, 2023 at 8:20 AM in Hyde Park about upcoming summer programs including a Children's Literacy Foundation Summer Reader Program, a reading from storyteller Michael Caduto, Beatles Trivia Night in conjunction with Lamoille County Players summer production "Let It Be; A Musical Celebration of the Beatles" and "Puppets & Pizza" at the Legion Field in Johnson.

2. LOCAL AUTHOR: MONICA MORRISSEY

Vermont Country Morning Host Roland Lajoie spoke with local author Monica Morrissey on June 15, 2023 at 8:20 AM about her third book "ONCE UPON A DIME." The book teaches you how to connect to the invisible energy that surrounds our physical human world. It's a way of grieving together in a different way so that we feel our loved ones' love and carry on their legacy. Monica was an educator for over 30 years before becoming an author and spiritual teacher, inspired by events following the death of her father.

3. LAMOILLE COUNTY OPIOID FORUM

Vermont Country Morning host Roland Lajoie spoke with Lamoille County Sheriff Roger Marcoux on June 16, 2023 about the June 20 "Lamoille County 6th Annual Opioid Forum. Community health partners and Lamoille County Sheriff's Dept. Will discuss various opioid related issues particularly focusing on personal safety. There will also be time set aside to answer questions from attendees.

4. LAMOILLE COUNTY MENTAL HEALTH SVC (MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH)

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie conducted a series of interviews with staff of Lamoille County Mental Health Services observing "May-Mental Health Awareness Month" and talking about its many services offered to the community.

5/3/23...8:20 AM: Michael Hartman, CEO gave an overview of the MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH radio series.

5/10/23...8:20 AM: Chris Glowac, School Based Therapeutic Services Program Director, spoke about their Mental Health First Aid Promotion.

5/17/23...8:20 AM: Chris Younce spoke about Developmental Services.

5/24/23...8:20 AM: Monique Reil, spoke about Emergency Services.

5/31/23...8:20 AM: Tara Miller spoke about Adult Behavioral Health.

5. "MEETING HOUSE ON THE GREEN MUSIC SERIES"

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" on May 27, 2023 (8:20-8:25 AM) with Tyrone Shaw, marketing/publicity director of the "Meeting House on the Green" Music Series in East Fairfield about the upcoming summer-fall concert schedule/events that benefits the Meeting House and its 10-year renovation/improvement project.

5. LAMOILLE HOUSING PARTNERSHIP RIBBON CUTTING/BLOCK PARTY

"Vermont Country Morning" host Roland Lajoie spoke "live" on June 20, 2023 at 8:20 AM with Kerrie Lohr, Lamoille Housing Partnership Advancement & Communications Director about the June 27 "Village Center Apartments Ribbon-Cutting & Community Block Party. LHP, a non-profit entity, collaborates with communities to create and preserve quality affordable housing opportunities for Hardwick and Lamoille County. It depends on financial support to break ground on and rehabilitate future affordable housing developments.