Two Murders

Following the murder of fourth-grade teacher Mickey Bryan 36 years ago – on Oct. 15, 1985 – fear and shock washed over Clifton, Texas, and local authorities soon arrested her husband, Joe Bryan. Four months earlier another crime rocked the small town: the murder of 17-year-old Judy Whitley, later linked to former Clifton police officer Dennis Dunlap. After Bryan spent more than three decades in prison for Mickey's murder, key expert testimony about forensic evidence used against him proved faulty. Those close to the case wondered – could the two homicides be linked and could Dunlap be Mickey's killer, too? In a new two-hour program, "20/20" co-anchor Amy Robach, who's been following this case for years, sits down with Bryan for his first broadcast TV interview.

Jekyll and Hyde

Robert Bierenbaum seemed to have it all, but just like "Jekyll and Hyde," he had a much darker side lurking underneath. Although authorities suspected him in Katz-Bierenbaum's 1985 disappearance from their Upper East Side apartment, insufficient physical evidence allowed him to evade charges for fourteen years until prosecutors discovered a doctored flight log from the day Katz-Bierenbaum vanished, and his lies finally caught up with him. False Confession

How did a bizarre confession derail the investigation into the first murder committed by Keith Hunter Jespersen, the notorious "Happy Face Killer," and allow him to remain on the loose, killing at least seven more women? A new two-hour "20/20" reports on how after authorities discovered the body of Taunja Bennett in the Columbia Gorge in 1990, 57-year-old Laverne Pavlinac confessed to the police that she took part in the crime. She provided convincing evidence that implicated her and her boyfriend, 39-year-old John Sosnovske, in the murder, and they were convicted and sentenced to life in prison. In a shocking twist, Pavlinac's confession turned out to be false in an attempt to escape what she described as an abusive relationship with Sosnovske. Juju Chang reports.

Wrongful Conviction

When a scream woke Julie Rea in the middle of the night, she realized her 10-year-old son Joel was missing from his bed. She encountered an intruder and struggled with him as he ran out of the house. When authorities arrived, she faced the unthinkable - Joel was dead and authorities began to focus on her, poking holes in her story about the home invasion. Rea ended up behind bars, convicted of Joel's murder. When crime author Diane Fanning watched a 2002 "20/20" report on Rea, she soon uncovered information that cracked the case wide open and linked notorious serial killer Tommy Lynn Sells to Joel's murder. A two-hour "20/20" reports on the case, the events of the tragic night, Rea's wrongful conviction, and Sells' startling confession about the crime.

10/02/21 48 HOURS: “Jasmine Hartin’s Shot in the Dark” – a report on the case against Jasmine Hartin, a socialite accused of the May 2021 fatal shooting of police superintendent Henry Jemmott in Belize. Jasmine, 32-years-old and the mother of twins, shared a beachfront condo with her partner, Andrew Ashcroft, the son of a British billionaire. Henry was a dedicated public servant and father of five. For the first time on television, Jasmine tells the story of what happened that night on the moonlit pier in San Pedro: Jasmine claims she and Henry were drinking before they went to the pier; he tried to show her how to load and unload his Glock 17 pistol and magazine because he wanted her to have a gun for personal protection. Jasmine reportedly first told police Henry was killed by gunfire from a passing boat; she has no memory of saying that and later admitted she accidentally fired the single gunshot. Henry’s family believes Jasmine murdered him. Jasmine has been charged with manslaughter by negligence; no trial date has been set. Additionally, she is involved in a custody case with Andrew which may not be decided for months. On-screen text graphic: Jasmine Hartin has not decided how she will plead to the negligent manslaughter charge. 10/16/21 48 HOURS: “#LindasStory” – a report on the cold case investigation into the death of 11-year-old Linda O’Keefe and how an innovative Twitter campaign, launched 45 years after her murder, helped in the quest to find her killer. Linda disappeared on July 6th, 1973, as she walked home from summer school; she was last seen talking to a man in a turquoise blue van in Corona del Mar, CA. Her body was found the next morning along a nature trail. There were few clues to what happened and after years of working on the case, the detectives eventually ran out of leads. On July 6th, 2018, the Newport Beach Police Department launched a series of tweets which told Linda's story, and ended with the killer's DNA composite released to the public. The unusual campaign went viral, accumulating more than 7 million impressions worldwide, and garnered national and international attention to the case. Inspired by the methods used to arrest the Golden State Killer, investigators applied genetic genealogy to Linda's case and uploaded the killer's DNA profile into GEDmatch, a public database. In January 2019, the DNA sample left by Linda's attacker led to a perfect match in Monument, CO: James Alan Neal. Further investigation revealed that at the time of Linda's murder, he lived in Orange County and that his real name was James Albert Layton. Soon after Linda was killed, he turned up in Florida under his new identity. James Neal's criminal history contained petty crimes to serious offenses and included other sexual assaults. He was arrested and pleaded not guilty on all counts in Orange County Superior Court. In the summer of 2020, James Neal died of natural causes while in custody. No on-screen text graphic for this broadcast.

48 HOURS: "The Station Nightclub Fire: Who's Responsible?" – a report on the February 20th, 2003 fire at The Station, a nightclub in West Warwick, RI, which left 100 dead and more than 200 injured. The fire began when the band, Jack Russell's Great White, took the stage and their tour manager set off four large fireworks called gerbs. Flames appeared on the walls on either side of the stage and spread quickly due to the highly flammable foam that lined the walls and ceiling, installed to dampen the sound. In December 2003, brothers and owners Jeff and Michael Derderian were each charged with 200 counts of involuntary manslaughter; Daniel Biechele, Great White's tour manager, faced the same charges – he had failed to get a license for the pyrotechnics from the state of Rhode Island and permits from the local fire department. In February 2006, a plea deal was reached with the tour manager: sentenced to 4 years, Daniel Biechele was paroled after 22 months. Michael and Jeff Derderian pleaded no contest. Their plea deal stated only one of them would go to prison and because Jeff had young children, Michael served 33 months in prison; Jeff completed 500 hours of community service. Eighteen years after the fire, the brothers use this broadcast to tell their story and reveal new information about the foam used to line the walls and ceiling of the club, claiming the foam company sent them the wrong foam. The Derderians have since learned that the fire marshal should have tested the foam and have always maintained they never gave the band permission to use pyrotechnics. Former Rhode Island attorney general Patrick Lynch led the investigation into the fire; he stands by his initial findings and disagrees with the brothers' decision to come forward. In 2017, a memorial was opened to honor the lives lost in the fire. On-screen text graphic: At the time of The Station fire, older clubs in Rhode Island weren't required to install sprinklers. It is now mandatory for nightclubs with occupancy over 150 to have them. Since The Station fire, many states have adopted stricter fire prevention codes. Interviewed: Linda Saran, survivor; Phil Barr, survivor; Jody King, brother of Tracy King, who worked as a bouncer at The Station and died in the fire; Scott James, author, "Trial by Fire"; Patrick Lynch, attorney, former Rhode Island Attorney General; and Jeff and Michael Derderian, brothers and co-owners of The Station nightclub. 10/30/21 48 HOURS: "The Murdaugh Mysteries" – a report on the investigation into Alex Murdaugh, a wealthy, once prominent attorney in the South Carolina Lowcountry, and the incidents connected to his family. On June 7th, 2021, Alex Murdaugh called 911 to report he found his wife Maggie and son Paul shot to death at the family's hunting lodge in Colleton County. About two-and-a-half years earlier, Paul was charged in the February 2019 boat crash that killed 19-year-old Mallory Beach. Mallory was one of six friends onboard the Murdaugh family boat when it crashed into a bridge on Archer's Creek. All were underage, and all drinking alcohol. A month after the crash, the Beach family filed a wrongful death suit against members of the Murdaugh family. In September 2021, Alex Murdaugh resigned from his law firm and a day later reported he was shot. He later named Curtis Smith as the gunman, who maintains he did not shoot Alex and claims Alex requested Curtis' help to make the incident look like a suicide. Alex faces charges of insurance fraud, conspiracy to commit insurance fraud and filing a false police report, in addition to two felonies related to a different alleged insurance fraud case involving the 2018 death of Gloria Satterfield, his former housekeeper. Evidence gathered by investigators looking into the shooting of Maggie and Paul Murdaugh led to the reopening of the investigation into the unsolved death of Stephen Smith, who was 19-years-old when he was found dead on a Hampton County roadway in July 2015. Alex Murdaugh was admitted to the Richland County jail October 16th; Curtis Smith is out on bail. The investigation into the murders of Maggie and Paul Murdaugh is ongoing. No on-screen text graphic for this broadcast.

Interviewed: Michael DeWitt, Jr., managing editor, The Hampton County Guardian;

Moxley spent her last night alive with young members of the Skakel family, cousins of the Kennedy's. In 2000, Michael Skakel was charged with her murder; he was convicted in 2002 and sentenced to 20 years to life in prison. In 2013, a judge granted Skakel a new trial, saying his first attorney failed to adequately represent him. In 2016, Robert Kennedy, Jr., Michael Skakel's cousin, released “Framed: Why Michael Skakel Spent Over a Decade in Prison for a Murder He Didn't Commit”, which repeated Skakel classmate Tony Bryant's 2003 allegations that his friends Burton Tinsley and Al Hasbrouck murdered Martha Moxley. In 2018, the Connecticut Supreme Court vacated his murder conviction and ordered a new trial. But in 2020, prosecutors said they would not retry him. Dorothy Moxley remains convinced that Martha was murdered by Michael Skakel; no one has been convicted of the murder. On-screen text graphic: Michael and his brother Tommy, according to one of his attorneys, have been estranged for years. - 11/13/21 48 HOURS: “The Ring: The Murder of Patrick De La Cerda” – a report on the February 27th, 2018 murder of Patrick De La Cerda, who was expecting a delivery of an engagement ring for his fiancée, Jessica Devnani. De La Cerda was shot four times in the doorway of the home he shared with his father on the outskirts of Deltona, FL. The investigation exposed a meticulous murder plan crafted by a man jealous of the couple’s relationship: Devnani’s ex-boyfriend, Gregory Bender, who had been harassing the couple. Since Bender violated the restraining order the couple had against him by telephoning Devnani the morning of De La Cerda’s murder, he was arrested. A February 28th, 2018 search of Bender’s home led to the discovery in a trash can of several handwritten pages with a map of the murder scene and details of how to conceal the crime. Less than 48 hours after De La Cerda’s death, Gregory Bender was arrested for murder in his front yard, after being released from the Orange County Jail. The trial included testimony from Bender’s ex-wife, Daymara Sanchez, about the murder plan; Bender’s defense insisted that the murder plan did not equate to guilt. The jury found Bender guilty of the charge of first-degree murder. In Florida, a conviction of first-degree murder carries an automatic life sentence without parole. On-screen text graphic: Gregory Bender’s attorneys say they plan to appeal his conviction. They contend the search of his house that produced the murder plan was illegal. Interviewed: Jessica Devnani, Patrick De La Cerda’s fiancée; Ashley Terwilleger, prosecutor, Volusia County, FL; Patricia Ronze, Patrick De La Cerda’s mother; Detective Chad Weaver, Volusia County, FL Sheriff; Andrew Urbanak, trial prosecutor; Max De La Cerda, Patrick De La Cerda’s father. - 11/20/21 48 HOURS: “A Killer In The Family Tree” – a report on the murders of Tanya Van Cuylenborg, 18, and her boyfriend, Jay Cook, 20, in November 1987 and the connection to Chelsea Rustad, an amateur genealogist from Tumwater, WA. On November 18th, 1987, Tanya and Jay left British Columbia in Jay’s parent’s van for Seattle, WA, to pick up furnace parts. After they didn’t return home, Jay and Tanya were reported missing. On November 24th, Tanya’s body was found in Skagit County, some 80 miles north of Seattle; she had been raped and shot in the head. The next day, her wallet, the keys to the van, bullets and other items were found under the porch of a tavern in Bellingham, WA. The following day, Jay’s body was found under High Bridge, 70 miles south from where Tanya was found; he had been strangled. Recovered evidence and semen samples allowed investigators to create a profile for “Individual A”. In 2017, Parabon NanoLabs was hired to predict the genetic traits of “Individual A” through Snapshot Phenotyping. After the Golden State Killer was arrested in 2018, Parabon NanoLabs agreed to upload the DNA of “Individual A” to the genetic database GEDmatch on April 27th, 2018. Genetic genealogist CeCe Moore assisted with what became her first criminal case and soon identified William Earl Talbott II. Investigators sought information from Chelsea Rusted, Talbott’s second cousin, who had also uploaded her DNA to GEDmatch. After a fresh DNA sample from Talbott was matched to “Individual A”, William Talbott was arrested on May 17th, 2018; he pleaded not guilty. Talbott’s trial began in June 2019 in the Snohomish County Superior Court; he was found guilty of the aggravated murders of Tanya and Jay and sentenced to two life terms in prison without parole. Also included in this broadcast is an interview with Andrea Roth, who expressed her concerns about sharing DNA on public genealogy websites and the lack of legal oversight. This broadcast does not contain an on-screen text graphic summary at its conclusion. Interviewed: Chelsea Rustad; CeCe Moore, investigative genetic genealogist; Jim Scharf, Snohomish County cold case detective; John Van Cuylenborg, Tanya’s older brother; Lisa Collins, forensic scientist, Washington State Patrol; Matthew Baldock, chief criminal deputy, lead prosecutor on the Talbott case; Jon Scott, William Talbott’s defense attorney; Rachel Forde, William Talbott’s defense attorney; and Andrea Roth, UC Berkeley Center for Law and Technology. 48 HOURS (continued)

11/27/21 48 HOURS: “A Promise to Ahmaud” – a follow-up report on the shooting death of Ahmaud Arbery, focusing on the trial against the three White men - Travis McMichael, Gregory “Greg” McMichael and William “Roddie” Bryan - accused of killing the Black jogger and the final guilty verdicts. On February 23rd, 2020, Ahmaud Arbery went running in the Satilla Shores neighborhood of Brunswick, GA. He went inside a home under construction; a neighbor called 911 to report a trespasser. Greg McMichael and his son, Travis, decided to follow Ahmaud in their truck, who fled when they confronted him. Soon William “Roddie” Bryan joined the pursuit, and the McMichaels were able to box Ahmaud in. As Ahmaud attempted to run past Travis, a confrontation ensued, which resulted in Ahmaud being fatally shot. First responders arrived within minutes and allowed all three men to go free. Police contacted Ahmaud’s mother, Wanda Cooper-Jones, and stated that he was killed during a break-in. She learned the truth after it was published in the paper. On May 5th, 2020, 72 days after the shooting, video of Ahmaud being chased down and killed was released and led to widespread condemnation and protests. Greg and Travis McMichael were arrested on May 7th; Roddie two weeks later. A year and 8 ½ months later, the trial began for the three men accused of murder. Central to the prosecutor’s case was that Travis, Greg and Roddie acted as vigilantes. Defense attorneys claimed that under Georgia’s citizen’s arrest law, they were justified. That law was overhauled after Ahmaud’s shooting. Roddie’s lawyer painted his client as an innocent bystander. Travis McMichael testified. After ten days of testimony and almost a day-and-a-half of closing arguments, the trial went to the jury - comprised of 11 White jurors and one Black juror. Eleven hours later, they reached their verdict:

Travis McMichael, who fired the fatal shots, was convicted on all counts; His father Greg and neighbor Roddie were convicted of felony murder and other charges. On-screen text graphic: In February 2022, Travis McMichael, Gregory McMichael and William “Roddie” Bryan are scheduled to face federal hate crime charges in a separate trial. 48 HOURS

12/04/21 48 HOURS: “The Corn Rake Murder” (9:13 – 10:13p) - a report on the death of Amy Mullis from a farming accident for which her husband is suspected, though he maintains it was a freak accident. In November 2018, Amy Mullis was found dead by her son, Trysten, in a shed on the family farm. She had apparently been killed by a corn rake used on the farm. After an investigation, her husband Todd Mullis was arrested for Amy’s murder. The autopsy showed a pattern of puncture wounds that indicated Amy had been struck with the corn rake multiple times. Other injuries she had also indicated she had been in a struggle. Police investigations turned up an affair that Amy had in the past. The couple reconciled, but Amy agreed to leave her job and work on the farm, allegedly so Todd could keep an eye on her. Friends testified that Amy was unhappy. Eventually she would begin another affair, with the farm’s manager Jerry Frasher, which Todd found out about. Todd’s alibi was that he had been working in a barn with Trysten before his son found Amy’s body. However, Trysten would amend his story, adding that he went to the office at the front of the barn a few times. At trial, the prosecution maintained this allowed opportunity for Todd to commit the murder. They also cited that surveillance cameras around the property were not working the day of Amy’s death in addition to suspicious internet searches related to infidelity and murder. Todd countered that there had been no surveillance footage for weeks before the murder, possibly due to animals damaging it and that the device the searches were made on was accessible to the entire family. After jury deliberations, Todd was found guilty. He filed a motion for a new trial based on the fact that his original attorneys did not focus on presenting Amy’s death as an accident as he pushed for. In September 2020, his motion was denied and he was sentenced to life in prison. On-screen text graphic: Todd and Amy Mullis' three children—Trysten, Taylor, and Wyatt—are now with Amy's family. 12/04/21 48 HOURS: “What Happened to the Perfect Child?” (10:13 – 11:13p) – an update to “The Perfect Child” (OAD: 02/10/00), a 48 HOURS INVESTIGATION on Americans who adopted children from Russia. This report focuses on what ultimately happened to a 9-year-old girl adopted in 1997 by Crystal and Jesse, a couple from Atlanta, GA. While in Russia, adopting the girl they named Caralee, Crystal and Jesse also adopted a 3-year-old boy they named Joshua. Two years later, the couple came to believe Caralee was dangerous, even capable of murder and claimed she tried to throw her younger brother off a 30-foot-high deck. Troy Roberts, who reported on their story, was present as the American couple returned Caralee to Russia and left her behind in a children's psychiatric hospital. Over the years, Roberts tried to keep track of Caralee, but was unable to find out what happened to her. Last summer she reached out to Roberts and they reunited in North Carolina, where Caralee, now known as Sabrina Caldwell, lives with her husband and four children. During their meeting, Caldwell explained what happened on the family deck with Joshua, her feelings about Crystal and Jesse, how she left the hospital in Russia and was adopted by new parents in North Carolina, and her family with her husband. This broadcast also includes Roberts' own experience with adoption: In 2003, he became certified to adopt and learned about a woman in Djibouti (in East Africa) who was hoping to find an American to adopt her 4-year-old son, because she feared for his safety due to his being mixed-race. Roberts and his son, Jonah Gray Roberts, now 23-years-old, discuss their life together. On-screen text graphic: Jonah's mother passed away a few years after his adoption. Interviewed for the 12/04/21 broadcast: Sabrina Caldwell (f.k.a. Caralee); Phil Caldwell, Sabrina's husband; and Jonah Gray Roberts, Troy Roberts' son. Also includes archival excerpts from previous interviews with: Caralee (n.k.a. Sabrina Caldwell); Crystal and Jesse, Caralee's former adoptive parents; Dr. Brian Kennedy, psychiatrist who treated Caralee; and Nina Kostina, Russian émigré who ran the Frank Foundation, an adoption agency. 12/11/21 48 HOURS: "Who Killed Rachael DelTondo?" – an update on the investigation into the May 2018 murder of Rachael DelTondo, a popular teacher who was gunned down outside her home in Aliquippa, PA. The case was first featured in 48 HOURS: "What Happened to Rachael", OAD: 05/18/19. The investigation led to several potential leads for the police to follow, including the actions of DelTondo's ex-fiancé Frank Catroppa and her friendship with Sheldon Jeter, a young Aliquippa High School athlete. Before the murder, Catroppa was allowed access to a police report about DelTondo with a lot of sensitive personal information, but he denies showing it to anyone. Jeter, through his attorney, also denies anything to do with the murder. There is also the belief that Sheldon Jeter was obsessed with DelTondo and there may have been some sort of inappropriate relationship. Her mother, Lisa DelTondo, also says her daughter told her she was cooperating in an ongoing investigation by state police into alleged corruption in the Aliquippa Police Department and had received death threats. UPDATE: On May 17th, 2020, Sheldon Jeter was arrested and charged with the murder of Tyric Pugh, a friend of Jeter's who lived on and off with the family. In early June 2021, Jeter went on trial and was ultimately found guilty; in Pennsylvania, first-degree murder carries a mandatory sentence of life without parole. A secret Pennsylvania statewide grand jury has heard evidence about Jeter's possible involvement in DelTondo's death; the district attorney's office hasn't officially named a suspect or person of interest. According to Frank Catroppa's new attorney and District Attorney Lozier, Catroppa is not a suspect in DelTondo's murder. No on-screen text graphic for this broadcast. Interviewed for this broadcast: Michael Moreland, minister, Sheldon Jeter's uncle; John Paul, investigative journalist, CBS News consultant; Michael Santicola, Sheldon Jeter's attorney; and David Lozier, district attorney, Beaver County, PA. Contains interviews featured in "What Happened to Rachael": John Paul (investigative journalist/CBS News Consultant); Lisa and Joe DelTondo (parents); Frank Catroppa (ex-fiancé); Jen Glovan (once Rachael's best friend); Matt Mottes, Jen Glovan's boyfriend; Joe Perciavalle (Assistant Police Chief); Michael Santicola (Sheldon Jeter's attorney); Jackie Belcastro (Rachael's aunt); and Lauren Watkins (17-year old friend/former student of Rachael's). 12/18/21

48 HOURS: "Scott Peterson: Case in Question" (9:00 – 10:00p) - an update on the case of Scott Peterson, who was convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of his pregnant wife in 2004. On December 24th, 2002, Laci Peterson was reported missing by her family in Modesto, CA. Investigators' suspicions turned to her husband, Scott, whom they believed was acting strangely in response to her disappearance. They also considered it odd that he spent the 24th on a fishing trip, leaving Laci alone, despite her being eight months pregnant. The case quickly gained national and international attention. A month after Laci's disappearance, Amber Frey came forward and revealed that she had been in a romantic relationship with Scott and had no idea he had been married or expecting a child. More than three months after her disappearance, the bodies of Laci and Conner washed up in San Francisco Bay, only a few miles away from where Scott said he was fishing on Christmas Eve. Police quickly moved to arrest Scott. In 2003, Scott's trial began in Redwood City, CA, where it had been moved to avoid publicity. The prosecution focused on the numerous lies he told during the investigation and used Amber Frey's secretly made recordings of phone calls between her and Scott. He was found guilty on November 11th, 2004. Four months later, Scott was sentenced to death. Scott's defense team filed appeals for years and in the summer of 2020, the California Supreme Court threw out his death sentence due to a mistake on how jurors were selected. His attorneys continue to push for an entirely new trial based on juror Richelle Nice, who incorrectly filled out a prospective juror questionnaire. Scott's defense team, as well as his sister-in-law Janey Peterson, theorize that Laci was still alive when Scott left for his fishing trip, that he is being framed and that there is a connection between two men caught burglarizing a home across the street from the Petersons. Original on-screen text graphic: Scott Peterson's next court appearance is expected in June 2021. On-screen text graphic for the 12/18/21 rebroadcast: On December 8, 2021 Scott Peterson was resentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole for the deaths of his wife and unborn child. Interviewed: Jon Buehler, Modesto Police detective;

Jack Leonard, senior editor of investigations, Los Angeles Times; Michael Cardoza, member of Scott's defense team; Pat Harris, Scott's defense attorney; Janey Peterson, Scott's sister-in-law. 12/18/21 48 HOURS: "The Life and Death of Nikki Kuhnhausen" (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the murder of Nikki Kuhnhausen, who disappeared June 6th, 2019 after connecting with a man in a Snapchat rendezvous. Her murder continues to impact LGBTQI (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and intersex people) communities. The murder of Kuhnhausen illustrates the real-life dangers and struggles many in the transgender community face every day. Kuhnhausen, age 17, vanished from Vancouver, WA in June 2019, just hours after meeting and exchanging messages on Snapchat with David Bogdanov, then 25. Bogdanov also seemingly disappeared. Four months later, Bogdanov claimed phone problems when he met with police and told them the last time he had seen Kuhnhausen was when he asked her to get out of his car, after she told him she was transgender. Bogdanov told police he had no idea where Kuhnhausen went after she left him. On December 7th, 2019, six months after she disappeared, Kuhnhausen's body was discovered by a hiker on Larch Mountain. Bogdanov was arrested on December 17th, 2019 after cell tower data placed his phone where Kuhnhausen's body was found. Prosecutors and investigators say Bogdanov killed Kuhnhausen in a hate-filled rage after learning she was transgender. At his August 2021 trial, Bogdanov said he killed Kuhnhausen in self-defense when she reached for his gun. He testified that he panicked after realizing she was dead and dumped Kuhnhausen's body at Larch Mountain. Bogdanov was found guilty of murder in the second degree and malicious harassment, a hate crime. He was sentenced to the maximum 19 and a half years for murder, with 12 concurrent months for the malicious harassment charge. Kuhnhausen's mother and supporters from the Justice for Nikki Task Force were determined something positive should come from her death and worked with legislators in Washington to pass Nikki's Law, which is designed to prevent defendants charged with violent crimes from using sexual orientation or gender identity as an excuse for violence, the so-called "gay" or "trans panic defense". On-screen text graphic: According to the Human Rights Campaign, there have been more violent deaths of transgender and non-binary people in the U.S. in 2021 than any other year on record. Interviewed: Lisa Woods, Nikki's mother; Arielle Fox, Nikki's best friend; Taylor Watts, Nikki's childhood friend; Kristen Arnaud, Clark County prosecutor; Colin Hayes, Clark County prosecutor; Detective Joe Swenson, Clark County Sheriff's office; Devon Davis Williamson, clinical social worker, transgender activist; Linden Walls, transgender activist; Vicki Matsuk,

12/25/21 48 HOURS: “Natalie Wood: Death in Dark Water” (9:00 – 10:00p) - a follow-up report about the unexplained death of Hollywood star Natalie Wood nearly four decades ago. County sheriff's investigators speak for the first time and tell 48 HOURS her then-husband, actor Robert Wagner, is now a person of interest; the investigators want to speak with Wagner about circumstances surrounding her death in 1981. Wood drowned off the coast of Catalina Island in California in November 1981 after she went missing from the Splendour, her family's yacht. Also aboard that night were Captain Dennis Davern, and actor Christopher Walken. The next day, Wood was found floating in the water wearing a red down jacket and flannel nightgown. After a two-week investigation, the death was ruled an accident. In 2011, as detailed in “Natalie Wood's Fatal Voyage” (OAD: 11/19/11), the L.A. County Sheriff's Department reopened the death investigation. In 2012, the L.A. Coroner's Office amended the death certificate from “accidental drowning” to “drowning and other undetermined factors.” Now, six years after that investigation 48 HOURS talks with the investigators about new witnesses, evidence, and theories as to what happened that night. Rumors of foul play have long surrounded Wood's mysterious death. At first, the three men aboard the boat told detectives Wood took off in a dinghy and went ashore. Over time, Wagner and Davern's accounts have shifted, raising a red flag to the investigators. Investigators also say Wagner has refused to speak with them since the case was re-opened. Investigators today note the autopsy report indicates there were a number of bruises that appeared to be fresh on Wood's body. The latest information is detailed through interviews with the detectives, and Natalie Wood's sister, Lana Wood. Also included are archival interviews with Robert Wagner and Captain Dennis Davern. Original on-screen text graphic: 48 HOURS' requests to interview Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken were declined. The Splendour is currently up for sale. On-screen text graphic for the 07/04/20 rebroadcast: 48 HOURS' requests to interview Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken were declined. On-screen text graphic for the 12/25/21 rebroadcast: 48 Hours' requests to interview Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken were declined by their representatives. 48 HOURS: “The Fenn Treasure” (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the treasure hunt started by a rich art dealer and the lives lost in pursuit of it. After he retired as a fighter pilot, Forrest Fenn became a successful art dealer in Santa Fe, NM. In 2010, he published a memoir that included a twenty-four line poem that he said contained clues to the location of a ten-by-ten inch box filled with gold he had hidden in the Rocky Mountains. After attention from the media, the hunt grew in popularity, including annual “Fennboree” meetups, which Forrest himself attended. On January 5th, 2016, Randy Bilyeu set off searching along the Rio Grande near Santa Fe, NM with his dog. He was reported missing ten days later. A helicopter rescue crew located his dog and raft, but could not find Randy. Six months later, his body was found on a riverbank. In June 2017, three more searchers lost their lives. Jeff Murphy fell off a cliff. Pastor Paris Wallace attempted to cross the high waters of the Rio Grande near the Taos Junction Bridge, but was overcome. His body was recovered four days later and spurred New Mexico State Police to ask Fenn to call off the hunt. Fenn refused. Eric Ashby attempted to swim across the Arkansas River outside Canon City, CO, but could not get past the rapids. On March 17th 2020, Mike Sexson and Steven Inlow set off from Salt Lake City, UT so they could search before the coronavirus lockdowns went into place. Originally on snowmobiles, they left their vehicles and most of their supplies when the terrain changed. They attempted to reach a mountain ridge, but the trek was more arduous than anticipated. Without water, Steve resorted to drinking his urine to survive the cold. At 2AM on March 20th, he awoke to find Mike dead from hypothermia. The next day, Steven was able to draw the attention of a helicopter. On June 6th, 2020, Fenn posted a brief message on a forum used by searchers stating the treasure had been found. In July 2020, he elaborated that it was found in Wyoming. In September 2020, Fenn passed away. Later that year, Jack Stuef went public as the person who had located the treasure. On-screen text graphic: To this day, searchers continue to look for the spot where Jack Stuef found the treasure, still hoping to solve the clues in Fenn's poem.
