* "Children's programming" for the purposes of the commercial limit means television programs "originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years and under."

**During this period, the Adult Swim block aired from 8 pm to 6 am ET on Monday through Saturday and from 9 pm to 6 am ET on Sunday. The Adult Swim block contains warnings to notify and remind viewers that the content is intended for an adult audience. It is not considered "children's programming" subject to the commercial limits set forth in the Act. Similarly, the ACME Night franchise, which airs each Sunday evening beginning at approximately 6 p.m. (ET) and leading into Adult Swim, contains general audience theatrical movies and other shows created for family viewing.
