RESPONDING TO CRISIS IN CHILDREN & TEENS

Featuring: Loren Stein, MSN, RNC-NIC & Deborah Johnson Ph.D., MSW, LCSW

This dialogue addresses the scope of the problem and describes how to identify signs of crisis. We discuss the impact of adverse childhood experiences and positive childhood events on children's physical and social health. Concludes with appropriate resources to assist children and teens in crisis.

CHEROKEE ARTIST SHOWCASE | NOV 11

MARYBETH TIMOTHY

Visit Cherokee Nation

18h · 🌐

Reminder: This Saturday, November 11, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. — Cherokee artist MaryBeth Timothy will demonstrate her beautiful mastery of painting at the Cherokee National History Museum. Timothy uses a variety of art media including pen and ink, graphite and acrylics to create intricate and vivid sceneries. The artist will also have works available for purchase.

This FREE event is part of the museum's "Second Saturday Artist Showcase," a monthly series where unique Cherokee art forms are demonstrated throughout the day at the museum in downtown Tahlequah, Oklahoma.
