WQUE-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- CRIME: Discussion of whether or not marijuana should be legalized. One caller says weed is not harmless, it cost her her ability to concentrate
- CULTURAL: The cultural implications of the film "Django Unchained", should Quentin Tarantino, a white director, have tackled such sensitive subject matter with such liberal use of the "N" word
- ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT: Pointers for setting up a new business with a business consultant and entrepreneur. How much start up cash is needed?
- EDUCATION: Show on paying for college with a representative of the La. Office of Student Financial Aid and the author of the ebook "How To Go To College For Free"
- FAMILY ISSUES: A look at the different resources to help couples settle child support issues. What are the financial obligations and the legal issues?
- FAMILY ISSUES: What is a good age to talk about sex with your children? With the power of social media, pop culture and peer pressure children know more sooner than they used to. What methods did your parents use with you?
- FINANCES: Tax tips from a business professional at Dillard University and Tribune columnist. She is also a certified public accountant
- MILITARY: With the Pentagon lifting its ban on women serving in combat hundreds of thousands of women will be up for front line positions. Will this hurt in the military in any way?
