WQUE-FM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WQUE-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- CULTURE: Writer and performer of "Black Angels Over Tuskegee", a look at the struggles and accomplishments of the famed African American Tuskegee Airmen in WW 2
- ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT: Discussion of upcoming small business networking event. What exactly is a small business and why is networking so important in business generally?
- EDUCATION: The guest is a well known New Orleans born actor promoting a fundraiser for Warren Easton College Prep school. This is a historic New Orleans institution serving primarily African Americans
- FAMILY ISSUES: Promotion of AKA's "Pumps and Pearls" which provides money for programs that support disadvantaged women
- FINANCES: The guest is founder of Financial Finesse, a firm that provides unbiased financial advice to millions of Americans. She talks about some of the most important things that are often overlooked in financial planning
- HEALTH: Interview focusing on kidney health. The high instances of diabetes in our area has led to the need for more kidney transplants than most of the country. How to preserve your kidney health
- VIOLENCE: The guest is founder of a group called "Cakes and Conversations", this is a support group for women who have lost children to gun violence in and around the New Orleans area
