WQUE-FM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WQUE-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- CRIME: The guest was falsely accused of taking part in the Bunny Friends Park shooting, which injured 17 people. He was briefly held in jail but was released when his mother produced video proving he was in Texas at the time
- CULTURE: Discussion of Bluest Eye Stage play. This is a Toni Morrison play about a young African American girl who longs for a world without racism and hardship
- CULTURE: The guest is a professor of African Studies. Discussion of African independence and African influences across the world.
- EDUCATION: The American Federation for Children, which lobbies to privatize public schools. The concept is to keep the schools free and public but to turn over much of the operational end fo private enterprise
- ENVIRONMENTAL: Discussion of solar power. Is it an effective way to power your home long term and are the energy money savings real and sustainable?
- FAMILY ISSUES: The Divas and Dolls Holiday, a local fundraiser for families who need help during the holiday season. Cases of hunger and homelessness always increase this time of year
- FAMILY SERVICES: Boys Journey to Manhood. This is a program that works with boys, particularly those at- risk, to provide health role models for them and guidance into adulthood
- FLOOD PROTECTION: Discussion of a proposition regarding levee protection that voters in Algiers and West Jefferson will consider on Nov 21.
- HEALTH: The topic was the Scott Eli Jackson Foundation and an upcoming fundraiser for pancreatic cancer detection. Routine screening is key
- N/A: The show's host did not provide guest/ topic information for this date

- RECREATION: Promotion of the upcoming "Running of the Santas", in which hundreds of people in Santa costumes, run down the streets of the city. It has become a New Orleans holiday tradition
- RELIGION: Discussion of Union Seminary and what it is about the religious calling that attracts so many men and women
