WQUE-FM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WQUE-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- CRIMINAL JUSTICE: The guest is the Orleans parish Clerk of Court, who is responsible for the day to day operation of the court system in New Orleans, including keeping administrative records and administering the oath to witnesses
 - CULTURAL: The guest is a local actor who was recently nominated for a Daytime Emmy for his role in "Bronx SIU" on Amazon Prime Video. He talks about his struggle to achieve success, including overcoming incarceration and dyslexia.
 - EDUCATION: Promotion of the Brothers Empowered 2 Teach program. This is a program with the goal of recruiting new teachers, particularly from the African American community, who can provide positive role models to inner city youth
 - FAMILY SERVICES: Discussion of the NOLA Poetry Fest, a celebration of aspiring young local poets. The discipline that it takes to put thoughts and emotions into words
 - FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF LOCAL CHARITIES: The guests are from the Greater New Orleans Foundation and the Posse Foundation. Discussion of "Give NOLA Day", which is a day set aside to promote local non- profits and encourage donating to them
 - HEALTH: The guest became a C-5 quadriplegic as the result of a diving accident 3 years ago. He is founder of the Split Second Foundation, which teaches that your life can change in an instant. Giving those in this situation the tolls they will need to enjoy a fulfilling life after tragedy strikes
 - HEATH: The guest is author of "Vision: How it Works and What Can Go Wrong". This is a detailed explanation of how your eyesight works put in layman's terms. Tips for protecting your vision as you age
