WQUE-FM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WQUE-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- CRIME: The Washington, DC based educator deals with issues of truancy and peer pressure. He once spent time in prison himself so he brings an enlightenment to some of these issues
- CULTURE: Discussion of the "Voices from the Bayou" book initiative, which gives voice to his students at Baton Rouge Community College and their thoughts on police, race and the flood.
- FAMILY SERVICES: The guests are players with the Harlem Globetrotters. Promotion of their upcoming show in NOLA and discussion about how sports opened doors in their lives
- FAMILY SERVICES: Author of "How to Talk So Little Kids Will Listen: A Survival Guide to Life With Children Ages 2- 7". Tips for dealing with very young children
- HEALTH: Promotion of the Delta Sigma Theta Health Fair, which offers free screenings and referral services to people who need further care.
- RECREATION : Jenga is found and director of the Backyard Gardeners Network based in the Lower 9th Ward. She helps improve the community through a variety of unique programs, which also help to get young people interested in gardening and the environment
