Actual Police Heroism on Display / Nashville Mass Shooting is Being Spun by Conservatives	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Cypher	In the first half of the show, we discuss the actual heroism seen from the body cam footage from the responding officers at this week's school shooting in Nashville. We contrast this behavior with what we have come to know as 'normal' behavior based in fear and cowardice so as to highlight what we expect from the officers tasked with protecting our communities. In the second half of the show, we delve into the questions surrounding the Nashville shooting and dissect the conservative attempts at rebranding the incident as an act of terrorism against Christianity. Our Way Black History Fact details the first arrest of a sitting U.S. President by an ex-slave. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.	R. Ja, Q. Ward	04/01/2023 05:48 AM	050:00
The Donald Trump Indictment / The	BIN Public Affairs	In the first half of the show, we talk about this past week's formal	R. Ja,	04/08/2023 05:58 AM	050:00

Double-Standard We Live With	- Civic Cypher	accusation of the former president and the fallout and aftermath of that proceeding. In the second half of the show, we shed light on some notable recent events that highlight the doublestandard that Black and other marginalized people live with in American society. We discuss the criticism experienced by Angel Reese after winning the NCAA Championship as the lead story for this half of the show. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.	Q. Ward
The Consequences of Skipping Local Elections / The Positives of Voting in Local Elections	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Cypher	For today's show, we are discussing two sides of the same coin. In the first half of the show, we talk about how quickly things can become problematic when we skip out on local and midterm elections. We are joined by AZ state congressional candidate Jevin Hodge who helps us break things down. In the second half of the show, we examine the other side of the coin and highlight some of the progressive, inclusive, and forward-thinking things that have taken place as a direct result of local voting initiatives. Jevin Hodge remains our guest as we discuss an unlikely friendship between Jessie Owens and Nazi Germany-era athlete for our Way Black History Fact. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.	R. Ja, Q. Living in the Aftermath of Anti-Black Violence	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Cypher	For today's show, we are discussing the aftermath of anti-Black violence. Our guest is Marshun Neeley who is a victim of police brutality and has launched a $5 million lawsuit against officers who attacked him. He shares his story and tells us about the aftermath and his recovery. In the second half of the show, we discuss Ralph Yarl, the 16-year-old who was shot twice for knocking on the wrong door in Kansas City. In the aftermath of the shooting, we examine how the perpetrator was treated, and the long road to recovery for Ralph and his family and community. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.	R. Ja, Q. Ward	04/22/2023 06:00 AM	050:00
How White Supremacy Causes Harm to White People	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Cypher	For today's show, we are getting caught up on some of the major headlines we haven't been able to cover. We discuss Fox News' settlement, Phil Jackson slamming BLM protests, and Kim Porter getting released from prison among other topics. In the second half of the show, we examine the harm that White Supremacy causes to White people. These forces may be invisible to many White folks who believe that White Supremacy benefits them, however as we uncover the truth, we learn that isn't always the case. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.	R. Ja, Q. Ward	04/29/2023 06:00 AM	050:00

Harming Black People? / Police Harassment of Black Teen Goes Viral	Affairs - Civic Cypher	discussing some recent examples (and some now historical examples) of private White and White-passing citizens harming Black people and receiving no consequences or minimal punishments for their actions. In the second half of the show, we examine a video that is going viral of an interaction between a Black mother, her teenage son, and a police officer who is harassing them. They are now clients of attorney Ben Crump and making national headlines. Our Way Black History Fact is dedicated to AAPI Heritage Month! Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.	Q. Ward
The Two Parties are Not the Same...What is the Right-Wing Death Squad? / Where is Right-Wing Accountability?	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Cypher	LOADed_2023-05-04T0830	R. Ja, Q. Ward	05/13/2023 05:59 AM	050:00
Racial Profiling Happens to Us Too / Who Gets to Decide Who Lives or Dies?	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Ciper	In the first half of the show, Ramses tells a story of a recent profiling incident that put him at odds with a police officer in a neighborhood into which he is planning to move. He tells of how police will often exaggerate, change their story, or sometimes outright lie in order to justify their prejudice and profiling under the name of keeping the peace. In the second half of the show, we ask 'Who gets to decide who lives or dies?' We cite recent examples of people who were	R. Ja, Q. Ward	05/20/2023 06:02 AM	050:00

		needlessly killed because they made the (White) people in the story feel afraid. The problem is further illuminated when we show how these killers are often celebrated as heroes for protecting everyone against the (Black) threat. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.
This Week in Racism / Why is the GOP so Loyal to Trump?	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Cipher	In the first half of the show, we catch up on some of the numerous incidents of racism in the news this past week including attacks on Black people, Mexican people and immigrants, and Asian people being used as a tool for White supremacists. In the second half of the show, we try and get to the root of the GOP's obsession with the former president and try to understand what people are looking for and why he seems to resonate with them - often at the expense of the security of Black and Brown people in this country. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.	R. Ja, Q. Ward	05/27/2023 05:58 AM	050:00
The News Stories that Need Context / Who are we Allowing to Dictate the Rules?	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Cipher	In the first half of the show, we discuss the news story about Adrian Mury, the 11-year-old who was shot in his home after he called the police to come help and obeyed the officer's commands. We also talk about a story from last year that just made national news concerning 54-year-old Dexter Barry who died in police custody because he was not allowed to receive medication for a heart	R. 		transplant he received. In the second half of the show, we talk about a recent story that saw Amanda Gorman's poem from President Biden's inauguration that has been banned in Florida. We discuss the person behind the banning and ask vital questions to understand who this nation is centering and who this nation is ignoring. Our Way Black History Fact discusses the Zoot Suit Riots. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.
Why Certain Foods are Associated with Racism / Why is Church Still so Segregated?	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Cipher	Today's episode we discuss the history of certain foods that have been negatively associated with Black people and the impact that it can have. We share some personal stories and provide some historical context and examples to flesh out the roots of this form of ignorance. The second half we discuss how segregated churches can be on Sunday mornings. We look into the roots of this segregation, challenge it, and identify ways race-relations could improve if this were ever remedied. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.	R. Ja, Q. Ward	06/10/2023 05:58 AM	050:00
The Brooklyn Neighborhood that Polices Itself / The Persistent Myths about Black Fathers	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Cipher	In the first half of the show, we discuss the Brooklyn neighborhood that began using community policing to deal with many of their own issues. The positive impacts that this rethinking has had are far beyond what police could hope to do by	R. Ja, Q. Ward	06/17/2023 05:56 AM	050:00

		themselves. In the second half of the show, we talk about Black fatherhood and the myths that Black men don't take care of our children or leave our children to be raised solely by their mothers. We discuss the history of these stereotypes and how damaging they have been. Our Way Black History Fact covers the largest mass deportation in U.S. History. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.
Shopping While Black / The Stereotypes that Harm us All	BIN Public Affairs - Civic Cipher	In the first half of the show, we discuss a viral incident where police were called on a Black couple shopping at Bed Bath and Beyond for having expensive items in their cart. We discuss the harmful stereotypes associated with Black people and how they shape our lives. In the second half of the show, we talk about how Black protesting is often rebranded as rioting, how rioting is not chronicled with an emphasis on fear when the (incredibly frequent) riots are based on a sports team winning or losing and ask about the moral implications of allowing one's preconceptions and stereotypes to shape their world view. Hosts: Ramses Ja and Q. Ward.	R. Ja, Q. Ward	06/24/2023 05:59 AM	050:00
