WQUE-FM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WQUE-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- CULTURE: The Guests are the playwright/ director and an actor in "The High priestess of Dark Alley" at LePetite Theatre. This is the story of two women doing battle with their domineering mother
 - DISASTER RECOVERY: Observations from those who covered the Baton Rouge area flooding. How does this event differ from Katrina? Initial steps towards recovery
 - DOMESTIC ABUSE: The guest is a New York best- selling author who has established a foundation that's designed to assist abused women. Providing a network of support so its easier for these women to leave these relationships
 - ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT: The guests are from the New Orleans Business Alliance. The agency works to market NOLA's brand and increase the stature of small business in the New Orleans area
 - EDUCATION: The guest is a member of the well know New Orleans musical group "The Meters". He is offering a workshop on music education at LePetite Theatre. How to make a living in the music business
 - FAMILY ISSUES: The guest is the Chief Operating Officer of the Tulane Health System with an update on the Millennial Awards, which recognizes up and coming young people dedicated to improving their community
 - FINANCES: The guest is a personal money management consultant and author who shares common tips when opening a business. What are typical mistakes startups often make?
 - HEALTH: The guest is author of "Waging Inner Peace", the story of how 5,000 US military men and women used yoga to reclaim their lives. The lessons we can all learn from these experiences
 - RACE RELATIONS: Understanding the assault on black manhood and masculinity. What are the challenges unique to black males? The guest gives public talks each weekend in New Orleans
